THE COUNTY ELECTION.

At the election to-morrow each voter should deposit two tickets, in two separate boxes, in the ward in which he resides, and at the place where he is accustomed to vote in city elections. One ticket will bear the names of the three candidates for County officers—Treasurer, Surveyor and School Commissioner. The other will embrace those of the town officers of the respective towns and that of the Ward Supervisor for the ward in which the vote is cast. The separation of the tickets is necessitated by a difference in the qualifications of voters for the two kinds of officers. The law of the last Legislative session relative to Cook county, abolished the "town meetings" in South, West and North Chicago, and substituted the election by wards therefor.

The following are the Judges and places of election in the city:

First Ward—American House. Inspectors—Orrington Lunt, D. R. Holt, Morgan L. Keith.

Second Ward—Engine House No. 1. C. L. Jenks, Theobold Hartmann, J. L. Marsh.

Third Ward—Court House. George A. Flagg, C. B. Farwell, M. Lynch.

Fourth Ward—Engine House No. 2. John R. Allen, John Boerman, Nicholas Burdell.

Fifth Ward—Engine House corner of Clinton and Washington streets. Noah Sturtevant, Russell Green, B. F. Bradley.

Sixth Ward—Engine House No. 6. J. B. Culver, F. McGinnis, Gustav Leverenz.

Seventh Ward—Corner of Wells street and Chicago avenue. N. Mears, A. Brunning, W. W. McFarlin.

Eighth Ward—North Market Hall. Eli Bates, Casper Butz, T. J. Kinsella.

Ninth Ward—Engine House No. 8. A. C. Coventry, G. B. Carpenter, John S. Voght.

Tenth Ward—Land Office of Mr. Shoup, corner Twelfth and South Clinton streets. Samuel Rugg, Charles Reitz, T. Schaal.

THE "PERFECTLY INDEPENDENTS."

The tickets put in nomination by the Randolph Street Democratic caucus on Wednesday night appeared in the Chicago Times of Saturday. We refer to the "perfectly independents." The first name in the Times' list is that of Mr. R. H. Foss, for School Commissioner. Mr. Foss being in some part of the Eastern States at this juncture, it is hardly an easy matter for him to repudiate the doings of the Randolph street caucus before the election.—His friends, we understand, are somewhat puzzled to find his name presented for this extraordinary honor, and more especially to find him being pushed to a certain defeat in connection therewith. Mr. Herrinkind, the "perfectly independent" nominee for Surveyor, is, or has heretofore been, a consistent and conscientious Republican. We understand that he takes his nomination as an intended insult. The name of Mr. Hugh Maher, the only real candidate on the county ticket, is sandwiched between the others to give him also a "perfectly independent" aspect. Two names are put on the ticket for Collector of South Chicago—a further dodge to secure character for independence. When the tickets are brought to the polls, one or other of the names will have vanished.

The "perfectly independents" were busy as nailers on Saturday, and so they will be to-day and to-morrow. A full Republican vote will be wanted at the polls to take care of them. Remember that the success of this ticket, or any considerable portion of it, would be claimed by the Times as a Douglas victory, and that Douglas himself would lug it into one of his speeches before the adjournment of the Senate next spring.

LARGE RECEIPTS OF NEW CORN.

Those of our readers who do not keep an eye on our commercial columns, will be surprised at the extent of the receipts and shipments of new corn this fall. Under ordinary circumstances, no new corn is received here till after the 1st of January, and even then it is only to supply a local demand by distillers and others. The warehouses very rarely store it before the months of April or May, and then only at the owner's own risk of heating. This season, however, owing to the short crop of last year, a large number of distilleries, starch factories, &c., have had to send on orders to buy and ship new corn, so as to provide for their winter's manufacture; and the result is, that the receipts here during the past week have ranged from 20,000 bushels to 40,000 bushels daily. During the past two weeks upwards of 120,000 bushels have been shipped, and there are contracts made to ship at least 100,000 bushels more before the close of navigation.

A visit to the depots of any of our railroads leading west, will give the uninitiated some idea of the extent of this business. A large proportion of the Corn arrives in the ear, and has to be taken off in wagons to be shelled. On Saturday, at the Illinois Central depot, there were upwards of fifty cars filled, all awaiting the St. Louis process of movement. The shelled corn, of course, is taken into warehouses by elevators.

The Independent Dodge.

The Douglasites have an idea that they can beat Boyden with an Irishman called Hugh Maher, for County Treasurer, by raising him as an "Independent candidate." Who is going to be fooled by this "Independent" dodge? This man Maher is a bitter, active Black Democrat, and a leader among the rabble of his countrymen. Let no Republican be deceived into voting for this partizan Douglasite, by any such cat-in-the-meal-tub subterfuge as playing "Independent." Boyden is a capital Republican, and has made an excellent Treasurer. He has been attentive, obliging and faithful. What more is wanted? He is the superior of Maher in every useful respect.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer publishes an article relative to the various appeals put forth for a commutation of Brown's sentence, in which the matter is treated rather gingerly and a great deal of swagger is indulged in as to what might be done for Brown if Seward, Hale, Wilson and Giddings would go to Richmond and surrender themselves to Gov. Wise! The drift of the article seems to be that Brown will be hung, though it does not say so in unequivocal terms.

Old Brown's Speech.

A gentleman from Charlestown, Va., who was present when Brown made his speech just before his sentence was pronounced, assures us that a reaction of feeling took place in the crowd almost instantly. As Brown was led out to prison the general admiration for him was expressed on every hand. The people had seen a man and heard him speak—many of them for the first time in their lives.

Depressed Markets and Light Receipts.

Dull markets seem to act on the receipts of wheat as accurately as dull weather on the barometer. About two weeks ago the receipts were beginning to fall off, when a speculative demand caused an advance in prices, and the result was an increase in the deliveries of wheat in this market of about 110,000 bushels in one week. Since then the prices have taken a downward turn, and last week our receipts have fallen off about 35 per cent.—ranging from 47,000 to 60,000 bushels daily.

The Baltimore Nuisance.

[Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.

For the last few days, the Baltimore election has absorbed much of the attention of people in this city. The vote has been taken, but the excitement, both here and there, has hardly abated.

The funeral of young Kyle to-day, at Baltimore, I learn, was attended by an immense concourse of the best citizens, who declined to ride in the carriages, but preferred to walk to the grave, as showing greater respect. In society, the leading men of the American party are everywhere being cut by their friends. Great bitterness of feeling exists, and the contest is no longer political, but social. The Legislature being Democratic in both branches, there being 13 Democratic and 9 American Senators, and 47 Democratic to 27 American Delegates, steps will be taken to have it immediately convened, in order to pass some measures for relieving the city of its present deplorable condition.

What particular form of relief will be adopted, is not known, but it is supposed the city will virtually be deprived of its charter, and Commissioners appointed who will nominate policemen, and take the power out of the hands of the Mayor in imitation of the action of the New York Legislature.

I understand the leading Americans threaten resistance in such a case, but I greatly doubt it, as it will be impossible for them to hold out against the power of the State.

Some seventy-five ruffians from this city went up to Baltimore on election day and took part in the disturbances. They would have been arrested on their arrival here, but escaped from the cars near Bladensburg, and footed it into the city. Things here are excessively dull.

The San Juan Island Affair.

Special Dispatch to the New York Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3, 1859.

There is nothing in the correspondence between our Government and England to justify the least apprehension of any rupture resulting from the San Juan affair.

The Administration has disclaimed having given General Harney any instructions to take exclusive or military possession of San Juan Island; but, in case of such step being taken, it is not disposed to recede from it; while it will be ready to continue negotiations as to the disputed boundary. Lord Russell's letter is not offensive, and presents no demand except to restore the joint occupation before proceeding further. This is declined here; but the correspondence continues amicably, and the conviction is fully entertained that Scott's presence and investigation will remove all points of embarrassment to the satisfaction of both sides. The information here is conclusive that the importance of the island as a military position or otherwise, has been greatly exaggerated.

Justice at Harper's Ferry!

A certain Mr. Hunter, one of the witnesses at the Brown trial, testified as follows concerning the way justice was meted out to the insurrectionist Thompson:

"After Mr. Beckham, who was my great uncle, was shot, I was much exasperated, and started with Mr. Chambers to the room where the second Thompson was confined, with the purpose of shooting him. We found several persons in the room, and leveled our guns at him, when Mrs. Foulk's sister threw herself before him, and begged us to leave him to the laws. We then caught hold of him, and dragged him out by the throat, he saying, "Though you may take my life, 20,000,000, will rise up to avenge me, and carry out my purpose of giving liberty to the slaves;" we carried him out to the bridge, and two of us, leveling our guns in this moment of wild exasperation, fired, and before he fell a dozen or more balls were buried in him; we then threw his body off the trestlework, and returned to the bridge to bring out the prisoner Stevens, and serve him in the same way. We found him suffering from his wounds, and probably dying; we concluded to spare him, and start after others, and shoot all we could find. I had just seen my loved uncle and best friend I ever had shot down by those villainous Abolitionists, and felt justified in shooting any that I could find; I felt it my duty, and I have no regrets."

Probable Triumph of Anti-Slavery in the State of New York.

From all appearances, it is extremely probable that the Black Republican ticket will be elected in the State of New York. The excitement produced by the Harper's Ferry affair and the trial of the conspirators is systematically increased and intensified. [!] All the great leaders of the revolutionary party—Wilson, Corwin, Beecher, Cheever and the rest—are adding fuel to the flame of hostility to the South, and it is evident that their inflammatory appeals are taking hold of the public mind. Emboldened by impunity, and flushed with the hope of political success, they give free utterance to their treason, and do not mince the matter. For this, their sentiments are the more acceptable, and make the deeper impression. With the aid of this excitement there is every prospect, therefore, that the revolutionary element will be triumphant in our State election. The Democratic party are so demoralised—all the leaders being jobbers and intriguers, who care nothing for the country, unless so far as it affords them plunder and spoils—no effectual resistance can be offered from that quarter. The revolutionists are thus confident of an easy victory, and are already calculating their majority.—N. Y. Herald.

The Kansas Senatorial Question.

The question of the choice of United States Senators, under the new Constitution, is being agitated in every corner of Kansas. By a kind of mutual concession, one is expected to be taken from the north side of the Kaw River, and the other from the south side. On the north, the candidates are Gen. S. C. Pomeroy, H. J. Adams, J. C. Vaughan and M. J. Parrot, our present Delegate. On the South side, are J. M. Winchell, J. H. Lane and F. P. Stanton. As to the chances of the candidates on the north, I have but limited knowledge, and will not prophesy. Mr. Winchell is a new nomination, and the first public announcement of his being a candidate for that position will appear in next week's Lawrence Republican. He is generally popular, and represents what has been called the radical wing of our party. He is an untiring worker, and a skillful political manager. With such a competitor as Gen. Lane, his chances are very fair.

Gen. Lane is one of the peculiar products of the country. He probably has no superior for wiry, physical endurance, or for art and cunning in his method of securing political ends. For this he will sacrifice honor, principle, or anything he owns or can promise another. He is a perfect example of an unscrupulous demagogue. His success, therefore, depends in a great measure upon the integrity and virtue of the people.

Gov. Stanton has taken the stump for the Republican platform and the Republican candidates, under the Wyandotte Constitution. He is undoubtedly sincere in his hostility to the Administration, and gives them some heavy blows when he speaks of the Lecompton fraud. But the idea of rewarding so new a convert is not congenial to our party. The "old guard" must be taken care of first. If Stanton continues faithful until the next term, his chances will be good. As it is, he has not a good prospect of election this year. He made a very able speech here last night, and was well received.

Dr. A. Danford, of Linn County, will also make some effort to get the Senatorial office, but he can hardly carry his own county. He, too, requires a few years of probation. Judging from the past, we must believe the people will act wisely when the hour comes.—Lawrence Cor. N. Y. Times.

To Machinists.—Some weeks since a machinist whose name and locality we cannot recollect, took from our news room a crank belonging to the wheel for lowering our forms into the press room, for the purpose of repairing it, since which we have not heard from it. The person who took it has probably mislaid and forgotten it. Will he have the kindness to return the crank, as we need it hourly.

I. O. O. F.—The new Hall of Fort Dearborn Lodge, situated at No. 80 West Randolph street, will be formally opened on Monday evening, Nov. 7th. Brothers of the Order and their wives and daughters are cordially invited to be present. M. C. Eames, R. S.

☞ The first issue of the Saturday Evening Review has appeared, and a right spicy, gossiping, readable paper it is. We would not wonder if Mayers has made a "hit."

☞ Furniture and Carpets at Auction this Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, by Gilbert & Sampson, at their Store, 82 Lake street.

THE CITY.

Republican Mass Meeting.

At North Market Hall on Monday evening. Hon. I. N. Arnold, Hon. N. B. Judd, E. C. Larned, A. C. Hessing and others will address the meeting. Republican papers please copy.

☞ The polls at the Town and County Election will be held at Smith's building, corner of Milwaukee Avenue and Desplaines street, for the Sixth Ward.

Discharged.—James Hill, who was arrested some time since for stealing a barrel of beef from the Michigan Central Railroad dock, was discharged on Saturday.

A Female Pickpocket was held to bail Friday in $500 for picking the pocket of a man named R. S. Short, of $10.50, whom she had enticed into a saloon.

Chicago Medical Society.—The postponed monthly meeting of the Chicago Medical Society will be held this (Monday) evening at the rooms of Lind Medical College. Subject of discussion: "The Fevers of the Season."

Stealing a Watch.—Thomas Sampson was arrested and brought before Justice Milliken on Saturday, charged with stealing a watch, valued at $3.50, from John Thomas, a colored man, living on West Lake street. Sampson was held in $100 to answer before the Recorder's Court.

Burglary.—A man named Peter Sheesak was caught Friday night in the hide and tallow store on J. C. Mitchell, at the corner of State street and Archer Road. He had broken into the basement of the building, and was going up stairs, when he was caught by the watchman. The prisoner is in jail, and will be examined.

New Books.—"Gold Foil," by Timothy Titcomb; "A Good Fight," by Reade; "The Old Stone Mansion," a new book by C. J. Peterson; "Sword and Gown," by the author of "Guy Livingstone;" together with a fresh supply of "Parlor Charades," may be found at McNally's, 81 Dearborn street.

Stealing Boots.—A young named John Hennessy, was arrested on Friday night, for being accessory to the larceny of a pair of boots. He and another thief went into a boot and shoe store in the North Division, and while he engaged the shopkeeper's attention in trying on a pair of boots, the other ran off with another pair. The case was continued for further examination.

Stealing a Washing.—Officer Leonard, on Friday found a lot of wet clothes, evidently a large washing, under the sidewalk on Kinzie street, where they had been concealed by the thief. As they were wet when they were found, it was pretty evident that they had been but recently stolen. The articles are at the North Market station, where the owners may recover them by identifying the goods.

Robberies at Evanston.—The Reynolds House at Evanston was entered by burglars on Wednesday evening last, and the entire washing of the week was taken from the laundry room, as well as a large quantity of clothing from other rooms. The same night the store of Messrs. Colvin & St. Clair was entered and about $100 worth of dry goods stolen. The rascals effected an entrance by removing a sash from the windows. They were traced to the lake shore and it is supposed came to this city.

Second Gift Concert.—The managers of this affair, to come off at Metropolitan Hall on Wednesday evening next, is determined to give the worth of the money invested in concert, as will be seen from the following talent which has been engaged for the occasion: Mrs. Robb, sister of the late Miss Goodnough of the Alleghanies; Mr. De Passio, Mr. De Clerque, Frank Lumbard; and a promising young Pianist, Mr. Charles C. Smith, will make his first appearance which, together with the Light Guard Band, will constitute an entertainment worthy of the home talent of Chicago. Tickets $1.00 each; to be had at Root & Cady's, where the prizes may be seen.

Robbery.—Michael Clark and John Casey, two sailors employed on the brig Enterprise, were brought before Justice Milliken on Saturday, on the complaint of James B. Tierney, employed on the prop. Ontonagon, who accuses them of giving him drugged liquor and then robbing him of $11. Tierney states that he met the prisoners in McDermott's saloon, on Kinzie street near Rush street Bridge, and asked them to drink. The bar maid gave him a different bottle from that which the prisoners partook, and after drinking, he became immediately stupified, when they took him into the street and robbed him. When he recovered from his stupefaction he found Casey's hand in his pocket. The examination is not yet finished.

The Boy Thieves.—On Saturday we mentioned the arrest of Dennis and Daniel Drew, for stealing $20 from Mrs. Hanley, on the corner of Sedgwick and White streets, and also the escape of two other boys engaged in the theft with them. On Saturday Patrick McEvoy and Patrick Daily, the two other young rascals, were also arrested. All four were brought before Justice Milliken, when it was developed that Pat Daily and Dennis Drew had also stolen 28 yards of cloth, valued at $14, from Louis and Jacob Schonefeld, of 186 South Clark street. On examination, Daniel Drew was discharged, but Dennis Drew, Daily and McEvoy, were sentenced to pay a fine each of $5, and be confined in the Bridewell 90 days. This operation has broken up a gang of graceless young thieves.

☞ We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, office No. 92, Broadway, New York. This institution is organized on a plan to be purely mutual, and yet have all the advantage of a paid up cash capital, which is invested in United States government stocks, for the protection of policy holders against loss. Its officers are men well experienced in Life Insurance, and their names are a guaranty that all trusts confided to them will be faithfully carried out. We are pleased to see among its Directors the name of Francis B. Cooley, Esq., of the firm of Cooley, Farwell & Co., Chicago, who now resides in New York, and who is too well known here to need any commendation from us. We believe this institution deserves the confidence of those who wish to protect their friends against want in case they should be suddenly called from this theatre of action. Messrs. Parsons & Wadsworth, No. 8 Dole's Building, are the agents for Chicago.

Evening Schools.—Editors Press and Tribune: I wish to know if there is an evening school connected with the public schools? and if there is, where it is held? and if not, why we cannot have one?

I suppose there is none; but I wish the Board of Education would think of the young clerks and apprentice boys oftener than they seem to. I wonder if Mr. Wells ever thought, when he met three or four boys going to the theatre, that he could help them to become useful men by getting an evening school in operation.

One year ago, I was in San Francisco, and went to an evening school, where I was taught all the branches taught in the day schools, and had to pay only two dollars per month; but in an evil hour I was tempted to come home, hoping I might have an opportunity to attend a free academy, or something of that kind, and pictured to myself a man just out of college, with an influence capable of doing a great deal of good in the world; but it seems that I was building castles in the air, for instead of getting ready for college, I have to use all my time and money in order to secure even an intelligent position in society.

I suppose the "Board" would tell me that there are a great many private evening schools, where I can get a good education very cheap; but I find the terms of most of them are from six to eight dollars per month, that they are open only during the winter, and that during the summer I should have to go without a teacher, or pay one dollar per night for one.

It is all very well for Chicago to cry out, "Look on this picture, and then on that"—pointing to herself and then to Baltimore; but if she cannot give her working boys an education, she will have some "Plug Uglies" of her own in a few years. Ignorant Apprentice.

Exhibition of Deaf and Dumb Pupils.—This (Monday) evening the exhibition by ten of the pupils of our State Institution for the education of the Deaf and Dumb, will come off at Metropolitan Hall. It will be under the direction of Prof. P. G. Gillett, Principal of the Institution. Prof. Gillett is visiting several towns in this part of the State with his pupils, endeavoring to make an interest among the public in deaf mute education, and to induce those who have children or relatives who are so unfortunate as to be deprived of speech and hearing to place them in the Institution, where, as will readily be seen any one who witnesses this exhibition, such ample facilities for education and sedulous care for improvement surround them.

The exhibition will be free to all, and the representations of the passions, and familiar incidents in history and the sacred writings will be found full of the most pleasing and absorbing interest.

Dreadful Accident at Dundee.—Friday night, between 7 and 8 o'clock, a member of a boot and shoe firm in Buffalo, whose name our informant did not learn, was killed at Dundee. He was about getting upon the Fox River train for Geneva Lake, and as the train started, slipped between the platform and the car step, a space of only six inches. He was turned over and over and crushed in a dreadful manner. He died about an hour afterwards, living long enough to give his name and residence. Telegraph despatches were at once sent to his friends.

The report of the attending physician of the Dispensary shows the necessity of its existence. No enterprise can be successfully carried forward without material aid. Medicines, bandages and dressings for patients, of various kinds, cost money. Any contributions in aid of the charity will be faithfully expended for the purpose. Contributions may be inclosed to the attending Physician, at the office of the Ministry at Large, Washington street, between Clark and Dearborn.

LOCAL MATTERS.

☞ Go to John Jones, 119 Dearborn street, and get your clothes cleaned and repaired. They will be well done and at prices to suit the times.

☞ Don't forget the great sale of Lost Baggage, Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, &c., at the M. C. R. R., Tuesday, Nov. 9th. no7-2t C. H. Keith & Son, Auctr's.

Butter and Cheese Exhibition.—The citizens of Chicago are hereby informed that an exhibition for best samples of Butter and Cheese from the dairies of this State, will be given at 96 State street, on the 9th and 10th of November. After the exhibition, the same will be sold by Folsom Dorsett. nov7-3t

☞ "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise." Those who have hitherto been ignorant of the fact that Loomis has just received some new and elegant styles of Hats and Caps, will show their wisdom and consult their interests by calling at 97 Clark street and giving them an examination.

☞ An item of interest to every lady visiting this city: The largest stock and greatest variety of Millinery shown by any one concern may be seen at Wamsley & Hueston's, 41 and 43 Clark street. nov7-4t

St. Paul's Church.—Rev. Richard Eddy, from Canton, St. Lawrence County, N. Y., will preach in St. Paul's Church, morning and evening, Nov. 6th. Mr. Eddy is one of the noted advocates of Universalism.

Rochester Mechanics.—We perceive from the list of premiums just awarded by the "American Institute," in the city of New York, the following to our townsman: "To Martin Briggs, best locks for safes and vaults, a silver medal. This is on the famous "Covert Lock," patented and manufactured in this city; and we congratulate the parties and mechanics of our city on this flattering result. The Covert bank and safe lock may now be considered fairly ahead of all its competitors.—Rochester Union.

Samples of the above Locks can be seen at 197 South Water street. Also Bacon's Burglar Proof Bank Safes, with Covert's Permutation Bank Lock, which has no key nor keyhole. no7-1t. Pratt & Worcester, Agents.

Piano Fortes.—Just received a fine assortment of first Premium Pianos from the manufactory of Boardman, Gray & Co, and other New York manufactories. For sale or to rent on the most favorable terms by W. W. Kimball No. 99 South Clark street.

"Small Potatoes."—The Chicago Times, after repudiating Broderick, and kicking off its former coadjutors and associates, reaches the climax of abuse in a late article upon Forney, of the Philadelphia Press, in which it "cusses him the wust kind." We used to think the Times possessed a certain moderate amount of stamina and moral courage. But its recent course impels us to look upon it as a creaking cane simply, stuck up here in the Northwest to show which way Douglas wind blows.—Chicago R. R. Gazette.

MARRIED.

On Tuesday evening, at the residence of Col. James, by Robert Collyer, Mr. DENNIS ROCKWELL and Miss HELEN M. DEAN, both of this city.

DIED.

In this city, November 4, 1859, CHARLES CLARKSON PERKINS, aged 26 years.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The Trial of the Harper's Ferry Insurrectionists.

Charlestown, Va., Oct. 5.—Shields Green, one of the negro prisoners, was found guilty this morning. The first count, for treason, was abandoned upon objection being taken by Mr. Sennett, that it was not proved that the prisoner was a free person, and therefore did not come under the statute which reads "any free person." Sentence deferred.

Copeland is now on trial, Mr. Sennett defending.

Tranquility is in process of restoration.

Hostilities between Buenos Ayres and the Argentine Republic.

New York, Nov. 5.—Buenos Ayres advices to the 1st, state that the Buenos Ayrean squadron had chased Urquiza's steamer into Montevedio. That government had ordered them to leave, and the Buenos Ayreans were waiting outside to fight them. A Paraguayan mediator was daily expected at Buenos Ayres. The land forces were inactive.

For Europe.

New York, Nov. 5.—The steamer Ocean Queen sailed to-day for Southampton and Havre, taking $943,567 in specie, and 148 passengers, among whom are Mr. A. S. Hill, of the Tribune, Dr. J. Frazier, U. S. A. and Dr. S. H. Elliott, of Staten Island.

The Kangaroo also sailed to-day, for Liverpool, with $170,000 and 232 passengers.

Rumored Conspiracy in Cuba.

New York, Nov. 5.—A letter from Havana, of the 30th Oct., says there is a report of a conspiracy, or something of that character, having been discovered among certain military officers and the soldiers at Matanzas. Various arrests are understood to have taken place, but no further particulars are permitted to reach the public ear.

Falling of a Building.

Hartford, Nov. 5—The four story brick store of S. Rockwell & Son, corner Morgan and Front streets, in this city, fell between 6 and 7 o'clock this morning. It was nearly new, and contained 1,500 bbls flour, large quantities of grain, provisions, &c. No one was killed, although one half of the building is a wreck from the cellar to the roof. The loss is estimated at $8,000.

Movement of the "Opposition" in Pennsylvania.

New York, Nov. 5.—A dispatch to the Express says the Pennsylvania Opposition State Committee have agreed to call a State Convention to elect delegates to a National Opposition Convention of the whole Union.

Failure of Brokers.

New York, Nov. 5.—Morse & Bro., uncurrent note, brokers have suspended, and made an assignment to Chas. A. Meigs. Liabilities small and creditors will probably be paid in full.

Loss of a Kerosene Oil Manufactory.

Boston, Nov. 5.—The Kerosene Oil Manufactory of Spear, Burke & Co., in Winthrop, Mass., was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $8,000, mostly insured.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

THE TRIBUNE—now more than eighteen years old, and having over Two Hundred Thousand subscribers, or constant purchasers, diffused through every State and Territory of our Union,—will continue in essence what it has been—the earnest champion of Liberty, Progress, and of whatever will conduce to our national growth in Virtue, Industry, Knowledge, and Prosperity. It will continue to urge the emancipation not only the Black laborer from chattelism in legal impotence, but of the White likewise from Land Monopoly, Intemperance, Ignorance, and that dependence on remote Markets, which paralyzes exertion by denying to Toil any adequate and morally certain reward. Believing that the chief evil of our time is the inordinate multiplication and disproportion of Non-Producers it will continue to war against whatever tends to degrade Manual Labor, or deprive it of its just and full recompense. It will inflexibly commend the policy of winning hither from Europe the Useful Arts, and, wherever they be needed, the Artisans as well, for whose products our country is now running recklessly into debt, while our laborers roam in fruitless quest of employment, leaving their children in want of bread, though the farmer is too often compelled to sell his crops at most inadequate prices. In short, while battling against Filibusterism and every manifestation of that evil spirit which seeks through the spoliation of other countries that aggrandisement which is to be truly attained only through the due development and cultivation of our internal resources, it will strongly advocate a more effectively discriminating Tariff, the Freedom of the Public lands, the construction of a Railroad from the navigable waters of the Mississippi to those of the Pacific, and every other measure which seems to us calculated to enhance the dignity or the recompense of Labor and promote the well being of Mankind.

The "irrepressible conflict" between Darkness and Light, Inertia and Progress, Slavery and Freedom moves steadily onward. Isolated acts of folly and madness may for the moment give a seeming advantage to Wrong; but God still reigns, and the Ages are true to Humanity and Right. The year 1860 must witness a memorable conflict between these irreconcilable antagonists. The question—"Shall Human Slavery be further strengthened and diffused by the power and under the flag of the Federal Union?" is now to receive a momentous if not a conclusive answer. "Land for the Landless, versus Negroes for the Negroless" is the battle-cry of the embodied millions who, having just swept Pennsylvania, Ohio and the North West, appear in the new Congress, backed by nearly every Free State, to demand a recognition of every man's right to cultivate and improve a modicum of the earth's surface wherever he has not been anticipated by the State's cession to another. Free Homes and the consecration of the virgin soil of the Territories to Free Labor—two requirements, but one policy—must largely absorb the attention of Congress through the ensuing session, as of the People in the succeeding Presidential canvass; and, whatever the immediate issue, we cannot doubt that the ultimate verdict will be in accord at one with the dictates of impartial Philanthropy and the inalienable Rights of Man.

Having made arrangements for fuller and more graphic reports of the doings of Congress, and of whatever else transpiring at the Federal Metropolis shall seem worthy of public regard, and having extended both our Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, and strengthened our Editorial Staff, we believe The Tribune may safely challenge a comparison with any rival, whether as an exponent of principles or as a reliable mirror of the passing world. We purpose not to be surpassed nor anticipated in the collection or presentation of intelligence, though we eschew that reputation for enterprise which is acquired by bribing messengers and clerks in public offices to connive at the premature publication of treaties or other official documents. We prize accuracy of statement quite as highly as promptitude, but endeavor not to sacrifice the latter while securing the former. Essentially, The Tribune will be what it has been, while we shall constantly study to improve its every feature, and "make each day a critic on the last." The general verdict of the Press and the Public has affirmed the success of our past labors, and those of the future shall be characterized by equal earnestness and assiduity. We ask those who believe the general influence of our journal to be salutary to extending that influence through an increase of our subscriptions.

THE NEW YORK DAILY TRIBUNE

is printed on a large imperial sheet, and published every morning and evening (Sundays excepted.) It contains Editorials on the topics of the times, employing a large corps of the best newspaper writers of the; Domestic and Foreign Correspondence; Proceedings of Congress; Reports of Lectures; City News; Cattle, Horse, and Produce Markets; Reviews of Books; Literary Intelligence; Papers on Mechanics and the Arts, &c., &c. We strive to make The Tribune a NEWSPAPER to meet the wants of the public—its Telegraphic news alone costing over $15,000 per annum.

TERMS:

THE DAILY TRIBUNE is mailed to subscribers at $6 per annum, in advance; $3 for six months.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE

is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the Editorials of the Daily, with the Cattle, Horse and General Markets, reliably reported expressly for The Tribune; Foreign and Domestic Correspondence; and during the sessions of Congress it contains a summary of Congressional doings with the more important speeches. We shall, as heretofore, make The Semi-Weekly Tribune a Literary, as well as a political newspaper, and we are determined it shall remain in the front rank of family papers.

The Semi-Weekly Tribune is sent to Clergymen at $2 per annum.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE,

a large eight-page paper for the country, is published every Saturday, and contains Editorials on the important topics of the times, the news of the week, interesting correspondence from all parts of the world, the New York Cattle, Horse and Produce Markets, interesting and reliable Political, Mechanical and Agricultural articles, &c., &c.

We shall, during this year, as hitherto, constantly labor to improve the quality of the instructive entertainment afforded by the Weekly Tribune, which, we intend, shall continue to be the best Family Weekly Newspaper published in the world. We consider the Cattle Markets alone richly worth to cattle raisers a year's subscription price.

THE SIXTH DISTRICT.

A Member of Congress will be elected in the Springfield District to-morrow (Tuesday, Nov. 8th) to fill the seat made vacant by the death of Col. Harris. The candidates are John A. McClernand, Democrat, and John M. Palmer, Republican. The district has been actively canvassed by both candidates, and if parties were closely balanced Palmer's election would be perfectly certain. But the Democrats claim to possess a majority of 5,000 in the eleven counties of which the District is composed. The Douglasites carried it last fall for Major Harris by the following vote:

Harris	16,193
Matheny	11,646
Harris' majority	4,547

McConnell, Danite received 277 votes. Total Democratic majority ... 4,824

This large majority may be ascribed to Maj. Harris' personal popularity; but it will be seen by the following table, that the Democratic State ticket received even a larger majority:

Counties.	Miller.	Fondey.	Dougherty.
Cass	745	[illegible]	9
Christian	587	921	13
Greene	765	1,512	1
Jersey	666	1,501	9
Macoupin	1,520	2,066	75
Morgan	1,786	2,061	74
Menard	776	871	13
Montgomery	780	1,319	97
Sangamon	2,736	3,075	157
Scott	654	1,001	2
Shelby	841	1,990	2
	11,361	16,260	296

Fondey over Miller, 4,679; total Democratic majority on State ticket 4,975.

In the present contest both wings of the Pro-Slavery party, have united on McClernand, and they are making the most of the Harper's Ferry wind-fall. But we are much mistaken if their majority does not fall considerably under 4,975—even with the assistance they may derive from Old Brown.

NEW YORK ELECTION.

We assume that the triumph of the Republicans in New York on Tuesday next, is generally admitted by all parties throughout the West; and we devoutly hope that the result will show that public expectation has not been at fault. But we are by no means as sanguine as many of our friends. The hostile attitude of the Americans, the unscrupulous use made in New York city of the Registry Law, the administration of which, unfortunately, has fallen into Democratic hands, and the vigorous lying which followed the attempt to make Gov. Seward and his friends responsible for old Brown's madness, may have a disastrous effect; though we still believe that they will not defeat the Republican ticket. The Americans have, it is supposed, at least 60,000 votes, a large minority of which will be cast directly for the Democratic nominees, while but a fraction will fall to the mixed ticket which the faction is nominally supporting. In New York city, there have been registered one hundred and three thousand names of men supposed to be entitled to a ballot. The highest vote ever cast there was 84,000; hence we may believe that a considerable part of the names registered are fraudulent. The Democratic majority looked for is not less than 30,000, and it may be almost double even that large figure. The clamor raised against the Republicans in consequence of Brown's madness will hardly affect the vote of any reading and sensible man; but it may poison the minds of thousands who cannot be so designated. In a few weeks more the Democracy will be ashamed of the figure that they have cut in this grave matter; but until after Tuesday they will use it, we fear, with great prejudice to our candidates and our cause. We hope for the old majority; but we are prepared for the worst that may come.

WISCONSIN.

The election for Governor and other State officers will be held in Wisconsin to-morrow. We doubt not that Gov. Randall will be re-elected by a majority much larger than was ever before given for a Republican candidate for the same office, and if our calculation shall prove correct the triumph will be one of much significance to Gov. Randall personally. The campaign opened under great discouragements. The Democracy made their boasts weeks before the nominating conventions were held that if they could only get Randall into the field again they would demolish the Republican party out of hand. A dissatisfaction was studiously fomented in Milwaukee and among the German Republicans generally, when it was ascertained that Mr. Schurz was not the nominee. Though, we fancy, the considerable blowing practiced in this behalf will not result in much of a shower, it was not without a serious prognostication of evil at the beginning of the campaign. A perfect hailstorm of vituperation was commenced by the Democratic presses of the State against Randall's private character (his public acts being unimpeachable), the Chicago Times furnishing the more flagrant libels. That sheet, we notice, has now assumed the double task of estranging the merchants of Wisconsin from Chicago, and damaging Gov. Randall's popularity, by charging that the latter "has, in the last six "months, or so, courted some of the leading "commercial men of this city, to enlist their "sympathies and secure 'material aid' from "them in his behalf. It need not be said here "how this has been done; it is notorious al"ready. But his plan contemplates the sacri"fice of some of the interests of Wisconsin— "and particularly those of Milwaukee—to the "advantage of Chicago." A charge of this nature, unsupported by a single fact or the semblance of one, amounts almost to a crime. Gov. Randall has branded it an infamous fabrication, and we expect the business men of Chicago, at whose prosperity it is equally aimed, to bear it in mind long after the purpose for which it was originated has been forgotten.

Against this tide of evil influences Gov. Randall has opposed a courage and pertinacity which has surprised many of his friends and confounded the whole list of his enemies. With an eye single to the principles of the Republican party and their success in 1860, he has made the best kind of a fight, doubling on Mr. Hobart at every turn, and involving him in a perfect maze of inconsistencies—the Barstow-Gray-Hobart complication, for instance. The vaunts of the Democracy at the opening of the joint discussions have given place to lamentations and heart-burnings. They are so torn with their own schisms that they have no time to plot discords in the opposite camp. They seem to be reduced to the necessity of stealing their candidates into office by the "pasting process," so well known to counterfeit and bogus money operators. The Janesville Gazette publishes some interesting correspondence in that relation between Mr. [illegible] H. Carpenter, Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction, (Democrat,) and Mr. W. E. Calkins, private citizen of Afton, Rock County, (Republican). The dodge employed to induce Mr. Calkins to commit the forgery was that of "membership of the Baptist Church!" Mr. Calkins' reply was to the effect that he did not know the Baptist Church was a candidate for anything in the political field, and that an appeal to his religious profession in behalf of a crime (in a moral point of view) was a novel compliment both to himself and the Baptist cause.

We look with full confidence for a rousing Republican victory in Wisconsin, and let no one make up his mind as to the result till the rural districts are heard from.

CHARLESTON CONVENTION.

Charleston is a very proper place to hold the National Convention of the party calling itself Democratic. The prevailing institutions of South Carolina and Charleston, are emblematical of latter-day Democracy. There is a peculiar fitness and propriety in that party going to the fountain of its stream from whence it derives its principles. The father of modern Democracy is John C. Calhoun. Charleston was his capital and South Carolina his constituency. He infused his doctrines into them, and they have reduced them to practice. The grand central idea of Calhoun Democracy is, that capital should own labor—that the man who gives employment should possess the men that works—that the relation between capital and labor should be that of master and slave. That was the fundamental theory which Calhoun inculcated. His teachings have been carried out to such perfection in South Carolina that the minority own the majority, and the people are divided into three distinct castes, viz: Nabobs, Enslaved, and "Poor White Trash." According to the U. S. census tables of 1850, each class numbered as follows: Nabobs, (slave-holders,) 25,596; Enslaved, (owned by the nabobs,) 393,944; Poor White Trash, (non-slaveholders,) 146,583. The wives and children of the nabobs number 102,420. From this classification it is seen that each nabob owns fifteen of the inhabitants of South Carolina, and that in the whole State, out of 685,507 persons, only 274,563 possess themselves. The balance of the population, in round numbers 400,000, are the chattels of the 25,000 Democratic lords. Here then we have the principles of modern Democracy reduced to practice, in the model Democratic State of South Carolina.

The Mahomedans make a periodical pilgrimage to Mecca to the tomb of their Prophet to renew their faith and gather fresh inspiration from his shrine. So the Democracy will make their pilgrimage next April to Charleston, to kneel at the shrine of their prophet to freshen their faith in his teachings and strengthen their resolution to carry out his "great principle," and mould the institutions of their respective States after the working model of South Carolina. The principles of the 'great embodiment' in the days of Jackson, were considered sectional, but latter-day Democrats declare them to be national. The doctrines of Jefferson were long believed to be national, but they are now denounced by the new-lights as sectional, and their advocacy so little less than treason.

The Warning to Secretary Floyd.

The following is the anonymous letter received by Gov. Floyd, of which mention has been made:

"CINCINNATI, Aug. 20, 1859.

"Sir,—I have lately received information of a movement of so GREAT IMPORTANCE that I feel it to be my duty to impart it to you without delay. I have discovered the existence of a secret association, having for its object THE LIBERATION OF THE SLAVES AT THE SOUTH BY A GENERAL INSURRECTION. The leader of the movement is OLD JOHN BROWN, late of Kansas. He has been in Canada during the winter, drilling the negroes there, and they are only waiting his word to start for the South to assist the slaves. They have one of their leading men (a white man) in an armory in Maryland; where it is situated I have not been able to learn. As soon as everything is ready, those of their number who are in the Northern States and Canada are to come in small companies to their rendezvous, which is in the mountains in Virginia. They will pass down through Pennsylvania and Maryland, and enter Virginia at Harper's Ferry. Brown left the North about three or four weeks ago, and will ARM THE NEGROES and strike the blow in a few weeks, and so that whatever is done must be done at once. They have a large quantity of arms at their rendezvous, and are probably distributing them already. As I am not fully in their confidence, this is all the information I can give you. I dare not sign my name to this, but I trust that you will not disregard the warning on that account."

Murder will out. The cherished hopes of the Democratic leaders, that they would "cross the river of their difficulties" at Harper's Ferry, is not likely to be realized. The public was not prepared to learn, at first, what is now coming to light. The conviction is forcing itself upon the people that the Administration were perfectly cognizant of old Brown's intentions, plans, and place of operations before he "opened the ball." The Secretary of War, Gov. Floyd, it appears was fully apprized by letter, two months in advance, of the raid upon the Ferry, and there can be little doubt that the President, Cabinet, and high Democratic officials, talked the matter all over, and came to the deliberate conclusion that they could make more capital for the party, by allowing old Brown to "play out his hand," than to nip his game in the bud or prematurely expose his scheme to the country. The Democratic leaders—Floyd included, knew the character and deeds of old John Brown of Ossawatamie, full well; they were acquainted with his terrible hardihood and iron resolution; they knew that his avowed purpose was to run off slaves; they had persecuted him for Slavery's sake almost unto death, and were not strangers to his feelings and designs.

The letter at the head of this article proves that the Administration was specifically informed and warned that "old John Brown of "Kansas, was at the head of a secret associa"tion for the liberation of slaves; that his "rendezvous was in the neighborhood of Har"per's Ferry where they would commence op"erations; that a white man in the Armory, "would assist them to seize it; that Brown "had gone down there four weeks previously; "that they had a large quantity of arms at "their rendezvous, and that they would strike "a blow in a few weeks,—so that whatever is "done to check-mate them, must be done at "once," and that this "warning must not be "disregarded."

Was ever a "warning" more emphatic or specific? The time, place, names and object, are all divulged, and laid before the Cabinet and President, weeks in advance of the emute. Harper's Ferry is but a few miles from Washington. Government spies and officials go there and return, daily, and there can be no reasonable doubt, but old Brown and his associates, were all "spotted;" their small number accurately counted, and all their movements carefully noted. The Administration saw that old Brown was too weak in followers to do any considerable harm, and that he could be crushed and captured in a moment. So they chose to nurse the insurrection, that it might be turned to partisan advantage. One word from Floyd or Buchanan, or the Constitution newspaper, would have blowed old Brown sky high; but "masterly inactivity" was the line of policy resolved upon—thinking they could damage the Republicans more by letting him and his 22 followers seize the Armory than to arrest the project in its incipient stages.

When Brown struck his blow, the terror of the 3,000 Virginians in Harper's Ferry, magnified his handful of backers into "700 white abolitionists, and 400 armed slaves." Gov. Wise called on nearly all the volunteer companies of the State to hasten to the scene of hostilities, and himself rushed to Washington to implore the aid of Federal troops. Why was it that the Administration only sent up a platoon of 40 marines? What could such a squad do against 700 furious abolitionists and 400 desperate negroes? The President had read just the same telegraphic information that had been sent to Wise, and to the country at large. There can only be one answer to all this, viz: the Administration knew beforehand the exact force at Brown's command, and that only a platoon of marines was required to quell the disturbance and capture the filibusters.—Had the government derived its first information on the day of the outbreak, it would have despatched at least 1,000 soldiers and a park of artillery to route the formidable enemy from his stronghold. But it sent half a Company, because it knew, weeks beforehand, the precise resistance it would be necessary to overcome. Can anything be more apparent? Can the Administration deny its guilty knowledge?

Let us glance at the denouement. Scarcely had old Brown been cloven down by the cutlasses of the marines, before the Constitution and States (Buchanan's and Douglas's organs) opened their batteries upon the bewildered and astonished Republicans. The telegraph was pressed into the service of Democracy to broadcast falsehoods, distort facts, and implicate innocent men; now was the time to make hay while the sun shone; such a god-send might not again visit this generation of democrats; and while the cowardly, scared chivalry, were running their bayonets into the dead bodies of those they slew after they had surrendered, the Democratic press and spouters throughout the country, taking their cue from headquarters, simultaneously raised a wolfish howl at the whole Republican party, charging them with being in league with old Brown and seeking to overthrow the Union and wipe out slavery by insurrection and civil war! With well simulated horror they called for the blood of Seward, Hale, Chase, Giddings, Fletcher, Greeley and other prominent Republicans, and demanded the instant disbandment and dispersion of the party organization. But the thing was overdone. The stiff-necked, stubborn free soilers were not to be captured by such beating of Democratic gongs. The coup de etat was a failure; the assailed stood on the defensive until the fog could clear away, when the Democratic trick became transparent. A reaction has set in, and they are now beginning to act on the defensive. The detected doughfaces would be glad to say quits and call it even. But as they uttered and circulated libels against the Republican party they will be made to prove their accusations or back down and sign a libel. The shrewder leaders discover that a great blunder has been committed, and they will soon be cursing the Administration for not stopping old Brown's proceedings when first informed of what he was about. They see that the country is going to hold the Administration to be equally as guilty as old Brown—as accomplices before the fact.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE LAW OF TORTS OR PRIVATE WRONGS: by FRANCIS HILLIARD, author of "the Law of Mortgages," "the Law of Vendors and Purchasers," etc. In two volumes. Boston: Little, Brown & Co. Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

This new work from the press of Messrs. Little, Brown & Co., reflects upon them great credit as publishers. Their execution of their part of the work is certainly all that can be desired by the profession for whose use it is intended.

The author already favorably known to the profession, with becoming diffidence as to his treatment of this very extensive branch of the law, has nevertheless, in the execution of the task he had imposed upon himself laid the foundation for a wider reputation among his brethren as a jurisprudent, and as a commentator upon various branches of the law. Contracts, torts, and crimes compose the whole body of the law. Every practitioner knows that contracts and crimes have been treated in very many works, so that their name is almost legion, while no elementary work has ever been exclusively devoted to the wide field of torts, or in other words private, or civil wrongs. It is true that most wrongs public and private are more or less discussed in works upon evidence, nisi prius, and pleading and practice, but these are mostly compiled with reference to remedies for wrongs rather than explaining the wrongs themselves. The author of these volumes has marked out a new path for himself and followed it with diligence and success. He considers the extensive subject of private wrongs, philosophically. He surveys in the first place the wrong itself, its nature and subject, then the injured party, whether it be in person, property or reputation, and lastly the remedy. The professional reader will cordially welcome the advent of this work, and while it is designed for his benefit, it is of great importance to the judicial and ministerial officers of the law. These latter are a numerous class and are found in every town and hamlet throughout the land. The chapters from the 19th to the 23d inclusive, are devoted to a discussion of the wrongs committed by or against officers of the law in the execution of their official functions. Ministerial officers familiar with these chapters, need not be at a loss how to act in any emergency. They give a clear and distinct view of their rights and liabilities. The work will soon find its way to the library of every successful legal practitioner in the country.

THE USE AND ABUSE OF TOBACCO—By Professor Lizars. Philadelphia: Lindsay & Blakiston. Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

This little work which is now published from the eighth Edinburgh edition, we can very cheerfully, sincerely recommend to all who are in the habitual use of tobacco, and also to such as propose to indulge in "the weed." Professor Lizars, the author, is well known as having been until recently the occupant of the chair of surgery in the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh. We can give no better idea of the scope and tendency of the book than to give the following lines from the introduction. "The object of the author will be attained if his observations have any appreciable tendency in arresting the progress of excessive smoking—by drawing the attention of the public to so important a subject. It is difficult to estimate, either the pernicious consequences produced by habitual smoking, or the number of its victims among all classes, old and young. Its physical, moral, and mental deterioration admit of no tangible analysis. These, though certain, are slow and imperceptible in their development, and it is therefore impossible to ascertain the extent of the injury which the poisonous weed inflicts on the public health, or the alteration it must effect upon the character of the inhabitants." Read then, ye lover of the weed—read of the frightful ulcers—the dreadful swellings of the throat and glands and the terrible death in consequence, and smoke again if ye can. Buy the book for 50 cents of S. C. Griggs & Co., and if you will but take one page at a time, tear it out, and after reading it, light your cigar or meerschaum with it, and if you do not throw cigars and pipes to the winds before you have used the whole book in this way, we are no prophet.

THE ADVENTURES OF MR. VERDANT GREENE, An Oxford Freshman. By CUTHBERT BEDE, B. A.; with three hundred humorous illustrations. 12mo. New York: Rudd & Carleton. London: James Blackwood.

Of all the books we have seen since we "laughed and grew fat" over the comicalities of huge Mr. Pickwick and his choleric friend Mr. Snodgrass this is a head. It has been heretofore impossible to reproduce in this country the humorous works of this celebrated writer on account of the expense of procuring the illustrations. The present work, however, comes from the original 'forms,' which are now stereotyped. In England, this work has run through edition after edition, until it is now in its nineteenth thousand.

Probably, no one can at all compete with Dicken's and Thackeray, who, Professor Masey in his late work on 'English Novelists' calls 'the two of England'—in that peculiar style of composition which marks their works—save Cuthbert Bede. He stands in the front rank of British humorists, side by side with the authors of 'David Copperfield' and 'Pendennis.' An Oxford student himself, lively with and adapting his style to each change of scene, he gives in a rich, racy and humorous manner the College Life of an Oxford Freshman, with the jokes, the sells and the experience of a Freshman's year. Every page is rich and sparkles with wit and humor. The illustrations are purely a la Dickens, and this is enough to guarantee the reader amusement. Character is exquisitely portrayed, while a quiet vein of fun runs through the whole from cover to cover—restrained in such character-painting pages—and in others bursting forth into irresistable hilarity. In short, it is about the best thing of the kind since the 'Pickwick Papers.' S. C. Griggs & Co., have it for sale.

ORATIONS AND SPEECHES ON VARIOUS OCCASIONS, by EDWARD EVERETT. Volume 3. Boston: Little, Brown & Co.; Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co., Nos. 39 and 41 Lake street.

The enterprising house from which this volume issues have given it to the public in their best style. It is uniform with the two volumes heretofore published, and will at once find its way to the library of every gentleman and scholar in the country. Mr. Everett speaks a great deal, and even his enemies will do him the justice to say, that he always speaks well. His friends and admirers claim that he is the best belles lettres scholar on this side of the Atlantic, and that as an orator, graceful and commanding in delivery, apt and elegant in illustration, and in diction pure and profound, he has no superior among living statesmen. The volume before us embraces the speeches delivered by Mr. Everett since 1850. The topics are wide and varied, and in their discussion the orator shows himself equally at home in dignifying and adorning the pursuits of agriculture, in the genial and care-banishing enjoyments of the social circle, and in the sublime and soul-stirring glories of the starry universe. His oration at the opening of the Dudley Observatory is alone worth the price of the book. A vast deal of information on a great variety of subjects is condensed in these orations and made available to the general reader. The book will, therefore, be sought after by all classes of citizens.

REPRESENTATIVE MEN OF THE NEW TESTAMENT. By GEO. C. BALDWIN, D. D., of Troy, N. Y. New York, Blakeman & Mason; Chicago, S. C. Griggs & Co., Nos. 39 and 41 Lake street.

This book consists of a series of lectures in which the more prominent individuals of the New Testament are each taken as the representative of a class of men, and the moral lessons which their history and characters teach are enforced with great power. John the Baptist, Herod, Peter, John, Ananias, Stephen, Paul, and several others, each form the subject of a lecture, of great value and beauty. We commend the volume to parents, as an appropriate present to their children. It will warn them to avoid the sins of Herod and Ananias, to emulate the virtues of John and the heroic devotion of Paul to the elevation and the welfare of our race. It should find its way to every fireside.

THE MANUFACTURE OF PHOTOGENIC OR HYDRO-CARBON OILS. By THOMAS ANTISELL, Prof. &c. New York, D. Appleton & Co.; Chicago, S. C. Griggs.

Within the last few years many discoveries have been made in the manufacture of oils from coal. Chemists have labored in this department of science with great enthusiasm, and their efforts have conferred great benefits on the civilized world. The work before us is alike interesting to the scientific and the general reader, as it brings down the discoveries in this department to the present time, and the modes of manufacture, and the value and the uses of the products of distilling coals are fully stated. All who are interested in the coal fields of the country, or who wish to know how to economise in fuel and light would find this an interesting work.

ALMOST A HEROINE—By the author of "Charles Auchester" and "Counterparts." 12mo. Boston: Ticknor & Fields. Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

The author already stands high in the estimation of the public as the writer of "Counterparts," which is probably the best of the series. The life of the heroine is exhibited from early life, when all is hope and joy, to maturer years, when the troubles and sorrows of old age are slowly coming up the vista of the future, and through all the changing scene presented to the reader the same calm reliance of principle and right is manifest. The tendency of the work is decidedly good, and the mechanical execution is creditable.

ALCOHOL—ITS PLACE AND POWER. By James Miller, Professor of Surgery in the University of Edinburgh; from the 19th Glasgow Edition. Philadelphia: Lindsay & Blakiston.

This book is a counterpart of the above, in size, tendency, &c. In above notice, for tobacco read "Alcohol," and for smoking read "drunkenness," and our readers will have the work before them. For sale by S. C. Griggs & Co. Price 50 cents.

THE BOY'S OWN TOY MAKER. By E. LANDELLS. New York: D. Appleton & Co. Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

This is a capital book for the boys. It teaches them how to make almost every variety of toy, and while studying it and making their kites, boats, &c., they will be sure to be pleasantly employed. Better by far be engaged in this than in doing mischief. Get the book for the boys.

CHAMBERS' ENCYCLOPÆDIA: a Dictionary of Useful Knowledge for the People, &c. &c. New York: D. Appleton & Co. Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

Nos. 4, 5 and 6 of this valuable work have been received. When completed it will be indispensible to every family library. It will be completed in about eighty numbers. Price 15 cents.

RAB, AND HIS FRIENDS. By John Brown, M. D.

Everybody has a biography, and why should not a dog. This is a spirited little book of 30 pages, givinn the life and death of a favorite dog. Persons fond of studying the peculiarities and characteristics of the canine race, will buy it. S. C. Griggs & Co.—15 cents.

The Reward.

It is reported that Bennet of the N. Y. Herald is to have the French mission if he succeeds in carrying New York for the Pro-Slavery ticket. This accounts for the deluge of lies he has poured upon the Republicans about Harper's Ferry and the "irrepressible conflict."

☞ If the Douglas doctrine of Popular Sovereignty could be carried out in old Virginia, and the whole people were left "perfectly free to form their own domestic institutions, subject only to the Constitution of the United States," it would be a very doubtful question whether a majority would not vote to make old Brown Governor instead of Wise. The present form of government in that State allows only half the people to have a voice in governing themselves.

☞ The Philadelphia Press copies the following editorial opinion given by the New York Herald when Mr. Buchanan was running for the Presidency:

"James Buchanan is an old dotard, an imbecile, a miserable, gabbling old granny, who has lost his memory, and who is utterly unfit for the important duties of the Presidency."

☞ The returns of the names of voters registered in New York city, foot up 108,450—23,748 more votes than were cast at the last State Election, and about 18,000 more than were given at the Municipal Election of 1857, which was the highest vote ever cast in that city.

The Harper's Ferry Panic in Memphis.

A correspondent of the Memphis Appeal writes to that paper as follows:

It begins to be vaguely whispered through the country that Memphis is becoming an abolition city, like St. Louis, and the permission given to the negroes to hold a fair at Odd Fellows' Hall, a week or two since, is pointed to as evidence of the fact. What could the people of Memphis have been thinking about when they accorded this permission? Are they not aware of the direct tendency to insubordination which they foster by allowing the negroes such privileges and liberties? My experience, during a long residence in Memphis, leads me to the belief that slaves there were allowed too close an approximation to the social level of the white man for the peace and welfare of our "peculiar institution." Heretofore, of late years, you might have seen, almost every day, but especially on Sunday, negroes smoking cigars on the streets, driving about in splendid equipages, holding intimate and familiar intercourse with Northern white men,—almost any day you could hear of them gambling, drinking and carousing at their own especial balls, and engaging openly in other "fashionable" follies and vices,—and now, it seems, "negro fairs" at Odd Fellows' Hall have become a regular "institution" among you! The one which came off two weeks ago, I am informed by country people who were in town at the time, must have been a very grand and successful affair, seeing that the negroes kept up the frolic nearly all night, and that the streets around Odd Fellows' Hall were thronged with their carriages, and the town vocal with the noise of their "jollification" to a late hour of the next morning! What a rare and beautiful spectacle in a Southern city, must have been this ebony fair.

The question arises. Do the free white people of Memphis propose to raise the negroes of the place gradually up to a position of equality with themselves? The people of the country towns of West Tennessee, who allow their negroes nearly the same privileges that they enjoy in Memphis, would do well to ponder the same question.

The Shooting of Thompson.

We have already said and repeated that John Brown's affair at Harper's Ferry was mad and fanatical; and we have not written, neither do we intend to write, a line or a word defending him or his insane attempt to raise an insurrection. Because while we cannot withhold respect for his sincerity, his bravery, his humanity when he might have shed blood, and the purposes, as defined by himself, which animated him, we repudiate completely any and all revolutionary infractions of the law, believing that whatever evils afflict the country can be removed without the dangers and exasperations and blood of a revolution. But holding, as we do, these opinions, we cannot repress the comparison between the conduct of Brown and his party and that of the terrified and infuriated Virginians. That Brown was desirous of avoiding bloodshed, that he was humane to the prisoners, that he acted under the highest sense of honor, is without exception the testimony of everybody. He struck not one single blow for vengeance. His sons fell beside him, and even while his fingers were upon their wavering pulse, he did not permit a retaliating shot.

The conduct of Brown in this respect, is the better appreciated when put in contrast with the barbarities committed by the Virginians. In the course of the trial a young man twenty-two years of age, named Hunter, was called upon the stand. He was the son of Mr. Hunter, the prosecuting officer. He was to testify concerning the shooting of Thompson, who it was thought had some connection with killing Beckman on the bridge. "Shall I mention names?" asked the son. "Every bit of it, Henry; state all you saw," replied the father.

Then followed the testimony of the young man. Beckman, who was shot on the bridge, was his grand-uncle; "he loved him above all others;" he went with others to the room where Thompson was guarded; a woman sat in his lap, and when they tried to shoot him, protected his head with her body, as much in the spirit of heroism as when Pocahontas defended Capt. Smith; the young man was "cool about it and deliberate;" they pushed Miss Fouke aside, and "slung him out of doors;" they "shoved him along the platform and down the trestle work of the bridge, he begging for his life all the time, very piteously at first; bye-the-bye, before we took him out of the room, I asked the question what he came here for? he said their only purpose was to free the slaves—that he came here to free the slaves or die; then he begged, 'Don't take my life—a prisoner;' but I put the gun to him, and he said, 'You may kill me, but it will be revenged; there are eighty thousand persons sworn to carry out this work;' that was his last expression; we bore him out on the bridge with the purpose then of hanging him; we had no rope, and none could be found; it was a moment of wild excitement—two of us raised our guns—which one was first I do not know—and pulled the trigger; before he had reached the ground I suppose some five or six shots had been fired into his body; he fell on the railroad track, his back down to the earth, and his face up." "Is that all, gentlemen?" asked the father. "It was all." "Stand aside," said the father to the heroic son. We suppose the son did "stand aside," having in a court of justice given this testimony in response to the paternal direction, and with the paternal eye beaming directly upon him.—Boston Atlas.

Inconveniences Resulting from Carrying off Trophies of the Invasion.

The Staunton Virginian tells a story of the hazards of a citizen of that place by having on his person some of the "trophies."

One of our townsmen, Mr. Geo. W. Dillard, was involved in great danger at Harper's Ferry, last week. He had gone there on business the day after the capture of Old Brown and his party, and in walking alone in the vicinity of the Ferry, enjoying the splendid scenery, with one of the pikes in hand and two or three blank books in his pocket taken from the insurgents, and which Gov. Wise had given him the day before, he was pursued and captured by a party who were hunting for Cook. Mr. Dillard was immediately charged with being one of Cook's men—the pike was satisfactory evidence—and the cry was raised of "shoot him! shoot him!" and several loaded guns were pointed at his breast. Fortunately, Mr. Dillard retained his self-possession so well that the party at last yielded to his request that he should be taken to the Superintendent at the Ferry, and there be permitted to prove his innocence. Mr. Dillard said it was about the most trying half hour, or more, he ever spent. We should think it was.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

The late Mr. J. K. Brunel, the engineer, was a rich man. His personal property alone was worth $400,000.

—The Toronto papers say that the rumors regarding the departure of the Governor-General of Canada at an early day, are totally unfounded.

—Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, who has been in England for some time past, will spend the winter in Switzerland. Her husband, Prof. Stowe, will return home immediately.

—Malthus has found a new disciple in the person of M. Joseph Garnier, of the Paris publishing firm, Garnier, Freres & Guillaumin, who has recently published "Der Progres de la Population."

—Enrico Lemini, who took a prominent part in the Italian movement in 1848, particularly at Curtatone and Rome, has recently been appointed Italian tutor to the Prince of Wales.

—It is announced that the Rev. Dr. Walker has resigned his office as President of Harvard College. Among the prominent names mentioned for the succession is that of Prof. C. C. Felton. Dr. Walker has held his office above nine years.

—Gen. B. F. Butler, Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, was prevented from accompanying Judge Russell and George Sennotte, Esq., to Virginia, as counsel for John Brown and his associates, by reason of an accident which disabled him, and his engagements in Court in Middlesex.

—The Hon. John B. Haskin reached Washington on the 31st ult. He has rented the beautiful mansion formerly occupied by Judge Douglas, near the Capitol, and almost adjoining the present residence of the latter. Haskin, says a correspondent of the Press, continues to be an unconquered and unconquerable "rebel."

—George P. Burnham, State Agent for the sale of Intoxicating Liquors, in Massachusetts, has resigned the office in a letter to Gov. Banks, on account of the "infamous charges" made against him, as he says, from motives of personal malice or envy, through those who have hunted him like bloodhounds the past two years. He is accused of adulterating the liquors he sells, and a Committee of the Legislature is investigating the matter.

—A New York correspondent of the Boston Post says that "the respected President of Columbia College has the prospect of ending his days in clover. His wife had the good fortune to inherit by the death of a relative, about a month ago, an estate estimated to be worth some $700,000. The property comprises several entire blocks of houses in New York city, and in localities lying directly in the path of the march of improvement. The lady is to enjoy a life interest in the estate, and it is then to be divided up among her children. The property in its present comparatively undeveloped state, commands a rental of not far from $40,000 per annum.

—A Washington correspondent says:

President Buchanan professes to favor the nomination of a Southern candidate at Charleston, and seemingly indicates Mr. Fitzpatrick; but his friends look to the contingency of his being himself selected. Most officials act on that idea.

—"Occasional" writes the Philadelphia Press from Washington, under date of the 2d inst., as follows:

A very general feeling begins to manifest itself that Gov. Wise may commute the sentence of death about to be pronounced upon "Old John Brown," to imprisonment for life; and I have some reason to believe that such will be the case. Brown himself seems to be entirely indifferent to his fate.

Per contra, the Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, under the same date, says:

I have good reason to believe Old Brown's sentence will not be commuted, though that course is urged by many conservative men. Gov. Wise spoke of him as an "old Roman," but he was unable to resist the pressure of public opinion.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

SLAVE EXODUS IN NORTHERN MISSOURI.—A correspondent of the Hudsonville (Mis.) Citizen says:

"What is to be the result of the present movement among the slave owners of northern Missouri? Sir, if slave owners continue to send off their slaves to the South for the next five years as they are now doing, all north Missouri will become freesoilized as effectually as any Northern State. Why, sir, we have no negroes coming in from the other slave States, and yet they are going South by hundreds. We now are in the very worst condition we possibly could be in; we have not half as much slave labor as we need at present, yet we have a sufficiency to keep out white labor—just in a condition that we have neither the one or the other. What is the result? Just this: if the other slave states do not send us a supply, either by emigration or otherwise, white labor will come in as slave labor goes out. Can there be no means of correcting this evil? For myself, I can suggest none. The Legislature will soon be in session: can nothing be done for our relief?"

SMOKING IN HOLLAND.—In Mr. Hillard's letter to the Boston Courier, he states that he rode in the second class car from Rotterdam to the Hague, with nine Hollanders, who, as soon as the train started, "whipped out a cigar or pipe and began to smoke as men ought to seek righteousness." After an hour's ride, he says, "it seemed to me that the smoke had become a solid and palpable substance, which might have been cut and taken out in blocks and slices." He speaks as follows of this national peculiarity:

"And here let me say that until you come to Holland you never can know how much humanity can accomplish in the way of smoking. It is hardly too much to say that every man, every youth, and nearly every boy smokes all the time he is awake, at least. The act of living and of smoking seem synonymous: As soon as a Dutchman begins to live he begins to smoke and as soon as he ceases to smoke, he ceases to live. The smoking of tobacco and the drinking of gin may perhaps be regarded as sanitary precautions against a wet climate and a sodden soil; if so the Dutch are to be commended for the good care they take of their health.

READING ALOUD.—There is no trust so great as to hear good reading of any kind. Not one gentleman or lady in a hundred can read so as to please the ear, and sends the words with a gentle force to the heart and understanding. An indistinct utterance, whines, nasal twangs, gutteral notes, hesitations, and other vices of elocution, are almost universal. Why it is, no one can say, unless it be that either the pupil or the nursery, or the Sunday school, gives the style in these days. Many a lady can sing Italian songs, with considerable execution, but cannot read English passably. Yet reading is by far the most valuable accomplishment of the two. In most drawing rooms, if anything is to be read, it is discovered that nobody can read, one has weak lungs; another gets hoarse; another chokes; another has an abominable sing song evidently a tradition of the way he said Watts' hymns when he was too young to understand them; another rumbles like a broad wheel wagon; another has a way of reading, which seems to proclaim that what is read is of no sort of consequence, and had better not be listened to.

JOHN BUNYAN'S PLAGIARISM.—A correspondent of the Boston Courier says:

The story of Bunyan's plagiarism, copied into your paper of Saturday, reminded me of a passage in Southey's Memoir of the Life of Bunyan, dated March 30, 1830, and prefixed to a revised edition of the Pilgrim's Progress. Southey mentions several works, from which Bunyan had been most absurdly accused of stealing, and among them the "Voyage of the Wandering Knight," translated from the French of the Carmelite, Jean de Carthenay, and printed during the reign of Elizabeth. Carthenay's work was an imitation of a French poem, composed A. D. 1310, by "Guill. de Guilleville," a monk of Chaalis, and entitled the "Pelerin de la Vie Humaine." Southey says:

"There is a vague general resemblance in the subject of this work, and some occasional resemblance in the details, but the coincidences are such as the subject would naturally lead to, and the Pilgrim's Progress might have been exactly what it is, whether Bunyan had ever seen the book or not."

I presume "G. de Grideville" is a mistake growing out of bad penmanship and printer's guesswork, for "Guill. de Guilleville," and that the work found by Miss Catharine Isabella Cart is substantially the same as that mentioned by Southey.

That Bunyan was the author of the Holy War I believe has never been doubted; and if so, he certainly was the author of the Pilgrim's Progress; for both are as evidently the work of the same mind, as are Paradise Regained and Paradise Lost. Indeed, the marks of the same mind are unmistakably visible in his sermons.

CLERICAL ATTEMPT TO "FORCE A VOTE."—Some years ago, a celebrated Methodist Minister and revivalist, well known for his eloquence and zeal in converting souls, was preaching in Louisville. The feeling had got pretty well up, and one night, after a very "powerful" sermon, he came down from the pulpit for the purpose of recieving the mourners, while the good old hymn of "Canaan, oh, Canaan, I'm bound for the land of Canaan," was struck up and chimed in by hundreds of voices. The hymn was concluded, but there were no penitents at the altar. In vain he exhorted. His words and appeals fell upon the ears of listeners without exciting any emotion. At length he concluded to make a bold stroke and follow it up with a test, and resuming the pulpit, after a few words of exhortation, he solemnly announced that he would put a question upon which he expected all to vote in view of the estimation they placed upon their souls. With finger raised most significantly, and in a most solemn manner, he announced:

"All those in favor of Christ will please rise to their feet."

Only some eight or ten responded to the announcement; and while the minister was watching intensely for others to signify their position by rising, a worthy member who was on his feet, interfered and suggested that "the reason might be that the true disciples were too modest to vote." At this juncture, a loud voice was heard in the gallery: "I say, brother H——, its no use a talking, or trying to force this vote; this congregation is for the devil by at least twenty-five hundred majority!"

Who is Responsible?

Our neighbor of the Democrat contends that the Republican party is. He says:

"The Republicans are concerned and indignant at the use Democrats are making of Brown's exploit. They, it is true, preach what Brown practices, but they are not to be held accountable. Like the demagogue who excites the mob with his incendiary harangue but hypocritically advises peace, they are not to blame. Brown is their victim now. If he had succeeded, he would have been the hero. He was only rash; began too soon and failed."

We protest earnestly against this loose and reckless sort of talk. It is not only groundless but perfectly silly. It is inexcusable. It is insufferable. Where, when, how, as the Republican party, or any great party in this Union, ever preached what Brown has practiced? In the name of our common country, we demand to know. Let the editor of the Democrat answer, if he can, or else cease this wretched libeling of one-half the people of the Republic and of human nature itself. The calumny is monstrous.—Louisville Journal.

WILL THE RAILROAD COMPANIES FENCE THEIR TRACKS?—Now while the recent terrible disaster on the Northwestern Railroad is fresh in the public mind and the frightful picture of the mangled and torn victims is still fresh upon the memory, let us ask will Railroad Companies ever be required to Fence their Tracks? The running over of cattle by the cars, is of almost daily occurrence, and nine tenths of the accidents that occur is to be attributed to this cause. No railroad should be allowed to run a passenger car one single mile until the track is well fenced, and provided with good crossings and cattle guards.

The Sentinel states this morning that the train which carried out the company to Watertown on Tuesday to assist in taking care of the wounded, ran over a cow going out, and killed a horse on the return trip.

We trust the next Legislature will take the matter into consideration and compel the railroad companies to take this one step at least in the right direction.—Milwaukee Free Democrat.

THE GREATEST WONDER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.

Says the St. Louis, Mo., Democrat: Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, MAINE, Jan. 20, 1858. Professor O. J. Wood & Co.—Gentlemen: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite grey, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the grey or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two years, has used it with the same effect. The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I feel assured that whoever will rightly use as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am truly yours A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

BROOKFIELD, Jan. 12, 1858. Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made a trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair which was becoming grey, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit. Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 312 Broadway, New York, (in the great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment,) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo. And sold by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR, Never Debilitates. It is compounded entirely from Gums, and has become an established fact, a Standard Medicine, known and approved by all that have used it, and is now resorted to with confidence in all diseases for which it is recommended. It has cured thousands within the last two years who had given up all hopes of relief, as the numerous unsolicited certificates in my possession show. The dose must be adapted to the temperament of the individual taking it, and used in such quantities as to act gently on the Bowels. Let the dictates of your judgment guide you in the use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR, and it will cure Liver Complaints, Bilious Attacks, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, Summer Complaints, Dysentery, Dropsy, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Colic, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Flatulence, Jaundice, Female Weaknesses, and may be used successfully as an Ordinary Family Medicine. It will cure SICK HEADACHE, (as thousands can testify,) in twenty minutes, if two or three Teaspoonfuls are taken at commencement of attack. All who are using it are giving testimony in its favor. ☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together. Price One Dollar per Bottle.

—ALSO— Sanford's Family Cathartic Pills, COMPOUNDED FROM PURE VEGETABLE EXTRACTS, and put up in GLASS CASES, AIR TIGHT, AND WILL KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE. The Family Cathartic Pill is a gentle but active Cathartic which the proprietor has used in his practice more than twenty years. The constantly increasing demand from those who have long used the PILLS and the satisfaction which all express in regard to their use, has induced me to place them within the reach of all. The Profession well know that different Cathartics act on different portions of the bowels. The Family Cathartic Pill has, with due reference to this well established fact, been compounded from a variety of the purest Vegetable Extracts, which act alike on every part of the alimentary canal, and are good and safe in all cases where a Cathartic is needed, such as Derangements of the Stomach, Sleepiness, Pains in the Back and Loins, Costiveness, Pain and Soreness over the whole body, from sudden cold, will frequently, if neglected, end in a long course of Fever, Loss of Appetite, a Creeping Sensation of Cold over the body, Restlessness, Headache, or weight in the Head, all Inflammatory Diseases, Worms in Children or Adults, Rheumatism, a great Purifier of the Blood, and many diseases to which flesh is heir, too numerous to mention in this advertisement. Dose, 1 to 3. Price Three Dimes. The Liver Invigorator and Family Cathartic Pills are retailed by Druggists generally, and sold wholesale by the Trade in all the large towns. S. T. W. SANFORD, M. D., Manufacturer and Proprietor, 335 Broadway, N.Y.

TO THE BE-DRUGGED AND POISONED CITIZENS OF CHICAGO. You are overrun with a deluge of the vilest compounds in the form of "ALCOHOLIC DRINKS" that ever emanated from that pest of society, the Liquor Mixer. They are sold to you as a luxury, or they are dispensed to you as a medicine, and in either case the effect is the same. There is but one way to escape, and that is to use as a luxury or a medicine, a safe and reliable stimulant, sold under stamp and seal, which renders it certain that it has not been tampered with. Such an article is Charles' London Cordial Gin. Which is distilled under inspection of the British Government, is deliciously flavored (unlike any other Gin) with some of the most valuable restoratives of the VEGETABLE KINGDOM, And is by far the most healthy beverage extant. The most eminent physicians of Europe and America, not only recommend its use by the hale and hearty, but prescribe it as a medicine where a stimulant is required. The female sex will find it not only a pleasant CORDIAL, But a certain relief in sufferings of a periodical character. Analytical chemists of all ranks pronounce it perfectly pure, and its restorative merits incomparable. Sold only in quart and pint bottles by all Druggists, Grocers, etc. FENTON & CO., jy14 94 Lake street, opposite Tremont House.

☞ Fact Number One.—That Christadoro's Excelsior Dye has recently been awarded by the Academy of Medicine, of Paris, the Gold Medal, as the Dye absolutely Harmless to the Hair and Skin.

FACT NUMBER TWO.

The Excelsior Dye is instantaneous in its effects; produces the Heautiful colour, which is lasting; is absolutely free from that of nature; and actually strengthens and invigorates the hair. This fact is established by competent authority.

FACT NUMBER THREE.

The sales of the Dye have increased two hundred per cent. in one year, and every respectable druggist and hair dresser finds it necessary to keep it as a standard article. Sold everywhere, and applied by all Hair Dressers, Christadoro, No. 6 Astor House, New York. oct4-1md&w

☞ The history of Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. One most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and other diseases arising from a disordered stomach or Liver, places it at once among the most astonishing discoveries that has taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which Bitters are applicable are so universal that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in the circle of families or circle of acquaintances and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. 30d-tw-2-5-w

"THE LOVED AND LOST."

FROM THE CHURCH OF ROLLAND MASSARINI.

Because we were taken from our natural seat?
God's mansions are many—why not another world?
Looked to it, and loving than the most.
Suggesting up raising these deep eyes of mercy upon.

They are not lost; they are within the door
Of heaven—not lost, but safely hurried through
With angels' speed, and invest once given before,
In their Redeemer's presence evermore.
And if the bitterness of death we have passed with Him,

And this we call a "loss." Oh, sudden sorrow
Of selfish hearts! Oh, we of little faith!
Let us look around, and ask our argument to borrow
Why we in patience should await the morrow
That surely must succeed the night of death.

Ay, look upon this dreary desert path,
The thorns and nettles in the way we tore!
What trials and what cross, what wiles and wrath,
What struggles and what strife the journey hath!
Who would recall us from these? and for? we answer.

Ask the wise sailor when the work is done,
Who with his tackle oozes strove the shore to reach,
While with the raging waves he battled on,
Was it not joy, when every jury seemed gone,
To know him safe at last on the beach?

A poor wayfarer, leading by the hand
A little child, had halted by a well
To wash from off his face the clinging sand,
And tell the tired joy of its bright land
That lay beyond the desert, whose delights dwell.

When lo! the Lord who with my manifold
Every hour and looked upon the trembling vessel,
Who with the raging waves he battled on,
Was it not joy, when every jury seemed gone,
To know him safe at last on the beach?

Did the sunk anchor sacrifice and wrong?
Nay, but the wave I feel he too must share?
Or, when, hurling into grief a song,
Did word her way relief, and made strong
To endure? Ah, no! it was the cross.

We will do likewise; death hath made no breach
In love and sympathy, to hope and trust.
We entered sign on board the heavenly town
But there's an love and spiritual speech
Which still abideth, and our hearts no longer be dust.

It is his to do the work that they laid down—
Take up the song where they broke off the strain;
So I interpret life and death. The heavenly town
We are but up our treasures and our crown,
And our lost loved ones will be found again.

OUR FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

Donnybrook Fair of the Bygone'e Times —Farewell to Irelaid.

DUBLIN, Ireland, Oct. 7, 1855.

This letter must complete the records of my ramblings in Ireland, and I am now in the focus of the whole country, the great city of Dublin, in which I see few attractions, but of which the true Irishman speaks with unaffected pride, as he declares it the second city in the United Kingdom. Well, it may be the second in the mere number of inhabitants, by a few thousand —but in all the elements of culture, wealth, enterprise and a great future, it is by no means the second. But it has some points of interest to the traveler, and among them is the world-renowned Donnybrook Fair. Not the old Donnybrook Fair I mean, not the Donnybrook Fair in its glory of whisky and shillelahs, but in its decline and fall. The decadence of Rome has been made the subject of one of the greatest of modern paintings, and the decadence of Donnybrook Fair would have been a fine theme for Wilkie. Shall I be guilty of a little service, my worthy reader, if I try to daguerreotype with my little camera the wanders of the modern Donnybrook Fair?

Well, a few days ago we jumped upon one of the funny Irish cars, of which I can hardly think without laughing, and were soon going with a great rush and a loud noise as any one of them all—and certainly no animal-driven vehicle ever rolled over the ground faster and more easily, and more smoothly, than the "low backed car." Our route was toward the south-east, and of course through the finest parts of Dublin—wide and clearly streets, houses, though still of the almost universal dingy gray brick, displaying long, handsome windows, fine doors and steps, and all the appurtenances of wealth and neatness, with now and then a green shrub peeping over the walls, and flowers, shining brightly in the windows; and of course on front yards glowing in the gorgeous hues of late summer, richer and more gorgeous because of the setting of deep green shrubbery. There was a throng of cars, coming and going, filled with such merry folk that each car seemed one great grin; everything enlivened us exceedingly and we found ourselves in the midst of Donnybrook Fair without shillelahs and rows? Nevertheless we found enough to amuse and interest us. From the entrance all the way to Ballsbridge, fanciful booths and tents and stalls along the sides and in rows extending lengthwise, were surrounded by the multitudes, either buying, trading, or stopping for a moment to buy, to look, to laugh, or to try their luck.

The presiding genii of these small establishments were male and female—what shall I call them—ranging between the ages of ten and a hundred, and ringing out in all varieties of tone appropriate to those ages, "A hapenny on the whites and a penny on the reds—a hapenny on the whites and a penny on the reds! Come try your luck, gentlemen—ladies, try your luck!" "Sixpence a turn!" "A hapenny a shot!" "Gold watches, double case lever, wind up gold watches, a most amusing thing for a child!" "Fine, fresh fruit!" "Cakes, cakes!" High over all rung screams and laughter from one corner of the ground, in which gigantic swings hoisted thirty or forty red faced and grinning full grown girls and boys, sound above the tops of the neighboring houses and vied in fun and tumult with the merry-go-rounds, which, filled with seats in the shapes of dogs, horses, chairs, and other monsters of carpenter shops, whirled into intense giddiness all but the very soundest heads that ventured in themselves. Underlying and pervading every other sound was the usual hum of a multitude, having however an unusually sharp and shrill tone from the excess of jollity. Opposite to the entrance, in the second and third story of huge wooden tents, wild figures arranged on their outside fronts, fantastically capered hither and thither, turning summersaults, jumping on each others' heads, swinging each other by the heels, and performing all the antics that the wit of man or the brain of monkey ever devised. In nooks and corners and in long wooden tents, over blazing peat fires, stood huge pots of Irish stew and cabbage, while gipsy-like figures stirred the fire, fished with forks in the pots, or, on the ground, picked and sucked greasy bones. Men with trays of candy hanging from their necks stalked like sentinels through the throng. Drunken men and women performed a variety of dances around an old woman playing on a violin; a man and a woman performed a variety of dances to the music of a bagpipes, hand organ and bugles, added to the general glee. An old woman barefoot but with her head covered by the usually cap, was performing an impromptu dance for the sole amusement, warmed up by the music which penetrated to her very toes. Gentlemen and ladies, respectable and well dressed, were in full and highest glee. If there was a frowning face on the ground it belonged to our company; if there was a dissatisfied man, it was the driver of one of the young gentleman who thought that the funniest thing must be in a tent which it required an admission fee to see. We penetrated and we followed the crowd; we stood before the swings until we were giddy, before the lottery tables until we were personally exhorted to risk a "hapenny on the whites and a penny on the reds," and we pressed through the booths, we escaped through a crowd that stared and roared at the antics of the showman; we looked at the people eating—we admired and wondered and laughed—we walked and stood still, and crowded the people and were thankful not to have the breath squeezed out of our own bodies,—we got lost and got found,—we got thoroughly tired, and at last, rejoicing made our way out and sought a car, a ride which was no roach, for in a twinkling we were on one, and were whirling away through the pleasantest parts of Dublin.

And so farewell to Ireland. Next week I shall take you by the hand, reader, in another land. May it be as fresh and interesting as this has been. MACCARNOX.

Sir Gruntley Berkley and his Buffalo Hunt.

[Correspondence St. Louis Republican.]

WESTPORT, Mo., Oct. 31.

Your readers will remember that the celebrated Royal Nimrod, Sir Gruntley Berkley, set out from here on the 25th of September (Sunday) for a big buffalo hunt on the great plains. The sporting world will probably be gratified to learn that he and his party have got safely back, after a pleasant and successful sport of a little over one month. They arrived in the "settlements" on the 29th inst., and the party divided—the nobleman and a portion of his suite going on to St. Joseph, and the guide and generalissimo of the excursion, John Cantrell, and the balance of the party coming on to Westport. I learn from one of the company that the hunt turned out very well, and that the "settler" and faction of "My Lord," who thinks himself amply repaid for all his trouble and expenditures.

They started out on the Santa Fe route until they heard of Col. Sumner's expedition, when by advice of Cantrell, they changed their course further north. They proceeded to Fort Riley, where they were joined by two officers of the army, and, thus recruited, made for the regions of Smoky Hill Fork, (some 250 miles from the Missouri River,) where they were gratified with the sight of buffalo in countless numbers. During the first day's hunt our high-born Englishman made a dead failure—in fact the buck-ague "got to him" in earnest, and he couldn't hit anything. But he daily improved, and soon showed himself a good hunter and a fair sportsman—for a foreigner.

They killed twenty-nine noble buffalo, the skins and tongues of which will be carried across the water as trophies, and a few choice steaks carefully packed up to be given to Lord Clyde at dinner about Christmas time. They also killed a variety of smaller game, of which "My Lord" has a number of fine specimens, such as foxes, grand game birds on the wing, &c., he surpassed every one else. His fondness for sport is only equalled by his fondness for whisky and cabbage. While they were on the plains Cantrell will say that the Lord of Englishmen was never seen to go to bed sober, without eating or drinking.

Reply to the Bishop of Orleans—M. About in his own Defence.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that M. About, author of the Roman Question, and the Nez Retroussé, is to be prosecuted by the Monseigneur Dupanloup, the Right Rev. Bishop of Orleans, for the indiscretion to attack the sprightly author in a pastoral charge speaking of "the base calumnies vomited by a French pen against the Holy Father and his devoted minister." M. About begins his reply thus:

"I dwell, Monseigneur, with my mother and sister, in a lonely house in the department of the Low Pyrenees. Ecclesiastical journals do not reach us. You will understand, therefore, that we receive neither the Figaro nor the Univers, nor the political charges of bishops. But an inhabitant of Saverne, who takes an interest in me, and does not like me to be abused, yesterday sent me a copy of your last pamphlet.

The following is the conclusion of his letter:

"Do not suppose, Monseigneur, that a sentiment of personal rancor has inspired these remarks. You have maltreated me, it is true, but in such good company that it was doing me much honor. I consent to remain to the end of my days in the category in which you have placed me, with the King of Sardinia and all the glorious deeds of the Italian revolution. I even confess between ourselves, that I did not know I should earn so much glory by pleading the cause of an oppressed people.

"Perhaps you might have used more courteous expressions towards a polite and lettered man. For, after all, if unfortunately, in fifteen or twenty years I stand a vacant chair in the French Academy, you would be forced either to quit the place or to admit that you had been cruel to a poor fellow, who, like you, has his children to bring up. They have transferred to language the torches and racks they no longer dare to use in practical life. I became aware of from the very first charge, I mean to say the first article of your new friend, M. Veuillot. When I was told that the Père Duchesne of the Church was about to declare war against me, I feared some serious objections to my theories, or some terrible refutation of the facts I cited, and already I prepared all the weapons of logic and of history. What simplicity! M. Veuillot limited himself to abusing me, as you have done, Monseigneur, and to denouncing my book to the police; for it is much easier to ruin an editor than an argument, and no reply can be more telling than a seizure.

"Like with respect your pastoral ring, and I bow myself humbly, Monseigneur, before the sacred character with which you are invested.

The Gulf Stream a Fertilizing Agent.

We read in Dana's Week: If we follow the Gulf Stream across the ocean, we perceive how fully it fulfills the purpose for which it was designed. Sir Walter Scott tells us that the pools in the Orkneys are never frozen, the effects of the grand hot-water warming apparatus of the Gulf Stream being sensibly felt even in those islands, which are situated in latitude nearly ten degrees further north than the ice-bound coast of Labrador. We all know that in Great Britain there is an extraordinary difference between the eastern and western coasts—so great, indeed, as to induce completely different systems of agriculture. The Emerald Isle owes her unrivaled verdure to the soft and balmy breezes born of the Gulf Stream which strikes full upon her shores; the western shores of England are indebted to the British parliament, established with the warmth and moisture from the same tropical source. The dairy produce of Great Britain has for years been drawn in fast-fast hot-water river in the ocean, the limits of which modern science has so accurately mapped; nay, the florid, plump looks of our people, and the large size of our cattle, are both owing to the effects of the moist and genial atmosphere which finds its birthplace in the beneficent Gulf Stream.

And in order to bring the effects of this extraordinary marine phenomenon closer home to the stomach of our reader, we may perhaps be permitted to add that it is to the Gulf Stream we be has purchased peas, potatoes, and broccoli so many weeks before their season in Covent Garden Market. Even in our old-world way we thought to be an extravagance, only allowable to a duke. Now any moderate man may indulge in them, and every year (as in 1855) these vegetables are forced—but in a hot-house atmosphere of nature's own contriving. Where the tail of the British dolphin dips into the Atlantic, winter-sets in, but the Gulf Stream arrives most felt; it is bathed with the warm, moist air, heated by the far-off Gulf cauldron, and we may say, "Let us have peas at Christmas," and our early vegetables sold in the open market are forced in hot-houses in Cornwall and Portugal (the easiest, and, at the same time, cheapest country), by means of a boiler situated beyond the West Indian Archipelago, the conducting hot-water pipe of which runs for nearly four thousand miles between the cold walls of the surrounding ocean. Had the ancients been aware of this property of the ocean, it would have modified the conceptions of the Fable Olympus, and we should have been familiar with the spectacle of—Neptune turned gardener.

THE WATCH QUESTION.—
American vs. Foreign Watches.

A CARD.

THE ONLY ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY PROOF OF A GOOD WATCH IS, THAT IT TELLS CORRECTLY, AND WITHOUT INTERRUPTION, THE TRUE TIME OF DAY. All other tests are illusory. If the watch will not keep correct time, no ingenuity of construction or ornamentation, no superiority of finish, no perfection of workmanship, no beauty of appearance, no excellence in the adaptation of the parts to each other, will be of any value. On the other hand, if a watch will keep correct time, it matters not how plain, how rough, how inelegant it may be, it is a good watch, and will be valued as such by all who know its worth.

The above Watches are for sale by Jewelers generally, throughout the Union, who do not solicit orders for single Watches. For the American Watch Company,

MONETARY

SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 5, 1859.

The money market is quiet, but it seems to be close all round. Exchange is firm at 1½ per cent. Discounts are difficult to be obtained, except for produce operations. The banks have for the present extended their accommodations to about the extent of their means.

Gold 1@2 per cent. These, it should be remembered, are the brokers' selling rates for small lots. For the last week or two the banks have refused to sell; but the buying rates have been 1@1¼, the usual figure being about 1¼. When not otherwise specified, we quote only selling rates, with Illinois and Wisconsin currency as the standard. We quote Exchange in the same manner. Buying rates both for Gold and Exchange are ¼@½ below our quotations as usually given.

The Wheat market opened very firm this morning, and several lots were sold at an advance of 1@1½c, but as soon as the New York dispatches were received, it became depressed and fell to the prices of yesterday, closing quiet. About 50,000 bushels of all grades changed hands at $1.10 for No. 1 White; $1.03@1.05 for No. 1 Red; 90c for No 2 Red; 85@86c for No. 1 Spring; 82@83c for No. 2 Spring; and 75@76c for Rejected. Flour was more active and advanced 5c, under a good shipping demand for Boston, New York, and Pittsburgh. About 2,900 barrels changed hands at $4.25@4.75 for medium to Choice brands of Spring Extras; $3.50@4.00 for Spring Super.; and $5.75 for choice White Winter. The receipts of Corn were large, and the market was quite active at a decline of 1@2c on Shelled and 2@3c on Ear. 15,000 bushels of all kinds were sold at 47@48c for No. 1; 43@44c for Rejected; and 35@36c for Ear Corn. Old Corn is very dull and slow sale. A few lots of No. 1 were sold at 66c in store, and 65c in bags on track. Oats dull and 2c lower, with however limited sales at 29c for No. 1 in store, and 31c for Canal afloat. Rye quiet, with sales at 60@62c for No. 1 in bags on track. Barley in good demand and firmer. About 10,000 bushels were sold at 60@61c for No. 1 in store, and 50@52½c for No. 2. Timothy seed in good demand and firmer, with sales at $2.05@2.14¼, according to quality. Highwines unchanged.

Freights are steady and quiet. The rates were, 8c for wheat to Buffalo.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 4.—No change in flour. Sales continue limited at $4.75@5; 100 brls country extra at $4.85, and 100 brls Kennedy's choice at $5.75, 30 and 60 drys, delivered at the wharf. Wheat $1@1.10 for prime red and white; receipts liberal. Sales 360 bush Corn from store at 42c, 980 bush Oats from store at 52½c and small lots at 55c.

OSWEGO, Nov. 3.—Flour unchanged; sales small. Wheat held firmly, while buyers generally insist upon a slight concession before coming into the market. Sales 6,000 bu Milwaukee club at $1.03; 13,000 bu do, slightly damaged at $1, and 5000 bu red Michigan on p. t. Other grains quiet and without material change in prices. Canal freights firm at 37c on flour and 10c on wheat to New York. Lake Imports—300 brls flour, 61,800 bu wheat; 20,400 bu barley, 33,000 bu rye, 1600 bu peas. Canal exports—1550 brls flour, 30,000 bu wheat, 6,800 bu rye, 3900 bu barley.

MILWAUKEE—Nov. 4—The Sentinel of this morning says:

Receipts of wheat continue decreasing. The totals to-day are 51,786 bu wheat, and 1,984 bbls flour, equal in the aggregate to about sixty thousand bushels. Shipments were large, amounting to nearly 110,000 bushels, including flour, namely, 8,920 bbls flour, and 65,208 bu wheat. The market for wheat was dull and unsettled, with a downward tendency, though a decline was not established.

HOGS.—The Missouri Democrat of yesterday says:

The "talk on 'Change" is that $3.50@4 nett, is likely to be the range paid in the country for Hogs. At any point where $4 nett is paid, the Mess Pork will cost $12 per brl., the best that can be done. Add to this, insurance, interest accruing on holding, &c., and the cost soon runs up to a losing point. Contracts would not be made by packers here at over $4.50 nett, unless for very early delivery, possibly; and as packers hold off, the farmers are becoming anxious to contract.

PITTSBURGH—Nov. 3.—The market for Flour during the week has been unusually quiet. The sales being very limited, the heaviest operation we noticed was a lot of 1,704 brls of damaged, on the wharf; the rates obtained ranged from $3.25 to 3.50@4.00; it was damaged by the sinking of the Mary Cook, some weeks since, and was owned by five of our wholesale flour merchants. The mills in this vicinity are doing a large business. The current rates are as follows: Superfine, from store, $4.50@4.70; Extra, 5.10@5.25; Extra Family, 5.55@5.70; very choice White Wheat, 5.80@6.000. Grain has undergone no material change. Wheat has slightly advanced, the principal sales being made at the depot; Spring is worth $1.03@1.04; Fall, 1.15@1.20. In Barley the only sale of any magnitude was a lot of 5,000 bu Spring at 75@80c. In Rye we could learn of no transactions. Oats were in moderate request, prices from first hands ranging from 38@40c; from store, 40@42c. Corn—A fair amount of new changed hands at 62@64c.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3—Receipts, 29,953 bbls flour 31,327 bush wheat; 1,300 bush corn; 10,150 bush oats; 4,042 bush rye.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Receipts, 7,131 bbls flour; 600 bush oats.

DETROIT, Nov. 4.—Receipts, 5,581 bbls flour; 4,166 bush wheat; 431 bush corn; 516 bu oats. The Tribune of last evening says:

Our market for wheat is quiet and without quotable change. There is very little offering, and that little is held above buyers' views. A lot of No. 1 red was offered on 'Change to day at 110, but was not taken. White is rather nominal at 120@125c for No. 1 and extra. An increased firmness is perceptible in flour, owing to the light stock on the market. Good red and white extras cannot now be procured under $4.87½@5.12½ respectively. There are orders to a considerable extent in the hands of dealers at $4.75 for the former and $5.00 for the latter.

TOLEDO, Nov. 4.—Receipts, 14,500 bu wheat, 14,000 bu corn; 1,706 bbls flour. Wheat—sales 2,100 bu white at 119c; 1,300 bu do 119c; 1,448 do 119c; 1,000 do 119c; 1,000 do 119c; 2,000 do 120c. Of Red, 1,200 bu M. S. 109c; 1,000 do 109c; 600 do 109c. Corn—New corn is coming in quite plentifully by R. R., and the streets to-day are filled with teams loaded with corn in the ear. The latter sold at from 22@25c per bu of ears. Sales 3,000 bu and 10,000 bu new corn on p. t.

BUSINESS AT PITTSBURGH.—The Pittsburgh Gazette of yesterday contains the following:

Business in all its several departments was dull, the demand being confined entirely to lots to meet the wants of the local trade. As regards prices we have but few changes to notice, which will be found under the proper head. Our rivers remain low; this is a serious drawback in trade, and prevents receipts of produce by that route. We have at present to depend on our railroad facilities until there is a rise of water. Our wholesale dealers have an ample supply of goods on hand, and appear to be doing a fair amount of business.

RECEIPTS OF WHEAT AT BUFFALO.—The receipts of Wheat by Lake at Buffalo, during the month of October, just closed, were 3,628,900 busels. This is without a parallel.

These receipts are far ahead of any month during the present or any previous year, and as will be seen by the figures given below, which show the entire receipts of Wheat at Buffalo for those years, are but little short of the receipts of the entire years of 1850 and 1854:

1846	4,744,000	1853	5,420,000
1847	[illegible]	1854	[illegible]
1848	[illegible]	1855	[illegible]
1849	[illegible]	1856	[illegible]
1850	[illegible]	1857	[illegible]
1851	[illegible]	1858	[illegible]
1852	[illegible]

The receipts of Flour during the same month of October, were 295,604 brls. The receipts of Wheat reduced to Flour, would give an aggregate receipt of Flour during the month equivalent to 949,389 barrels!

SHIPMENTS OF CORN IN INDIANA.—The Lafayette Courier says: "The present activity in the grain market—the clatter of corn-shellers running night and day—the rush of street buyers—the caravans of wagons which daily block up the leading thoroughfares, is indicative of better times, and leaves croakers without a peg to hang a groan upon. All the available rolling stock of the Valley Road has been called into requisition to carry off the corn, and the canal is doing a [illegible] business. All the grain dealers from Toledo to the State Line, are straining every nerve to push the largest possible quantity of this staple through to Buffalo, before the close of navigation. The intimate relations and extensive correspondence between this city and Buffalo, may be inferred from the fact that from and after to-day, Postmaster Wood makes up a special mail bag for Buffalo, daily. Persons who are skeptical as to the wonderful resources and promising future of the Wabash Valley, may have their 'strength renewed' by a visit to the Depot of the Valley Road, or a stroll among the warehouses on the Canal."

RECEIPTS AT TIDE-WATER.—The quantity of flour, wheat, corn and barley left at tide-water during the fourth week of October, in the years 1858 and 1859, is as follows:

Year.	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bu.	Corn, bu.	Barley, bu.
1858	100,562	450,955	246,295	576,043
1859	66,900	569,463	45,406	309,872
Decrease	33,662	Inc.88,508	Dec.200,889	266,671

The aggregate quantity of the same articles left at tide-water from the commencement of navigation to the 1st of November inclusive, during the years 1858 and 1859, is as follows:

Year.	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bu.	Corn, bu.	Barley, bu.
1859	1,557,401	7,795,919	4,605,874	2,487,003
1858	511,068	2,545,766	2,855,889	1,247,920
Decrease	1,046,333	4,692,153	3,680,965	1,89,183

By reducing the wheat to flour, the quantity of the latter left at tide-water this year, compared with the corresponding period of last year, shows a falling off equal to 1,978,788 bbls flour.

The British Corn Trade.

[From the Mark Lane Express, Oct. 17.]

The weather of the past week, though variable, has permitted the continuance of field work, especially on the drier soils. The sowing of Wheat has commenced under favorable circumstances, with every prospect of a general success. The Wheat markets have, too, steadily preserved an upward tendency, notwithstanding the slight improvement in the condition of samples. The demand for seed has been an auxiliary to the rise of another 1s. per qr., some places noting a greater improvement. France, as well as the near countries, has rather evinced a retrograde movement. But northern and southern Europe, as well as Odessa; on the contrary, have either been firm or dearer in price, Rye having universally risen throughout Germany. Even the Australian markets have gone up about 30s per ton for Flour during the last month, the first quality being quoted £28, or 70s per 280 lbs. New York with almost every mail exhibits moderately fluctuations, the preponderance, as on the last advices, being towards a decline. The recent news from France and England will not fail to produce an upward tendency in prices, and leave the impression that a time for remunerative exports is at hand. Foreign imports have continued moderate, and the sale of dry Russian qualities off the coast has been very active at about 2s pr qr in advance. The scarcity of English samples in good condition has directed the attention of millers to these qualities for mixing or grinding, while the scarcity of better descriptions of Baltic Wheat keeps them relatively dear, and only in retail demand. The general averages, as compared with those of London, show that the country markets are comparatively the highest. The arrivals off the coast since the 5th inst. were 16, of which 5 were Wheat and 8 Maize, the business reported being as follows, viz., 15 cargoes wheat—5 Tagonrog Ghirka at 43s 6d to 44s 6d, 4 Odessa Ghirka at 43s 6d to 43s 6d, and 2 Egyptian Saide at 34s 3d and 34s 6d, about 18 18 of maize at 27s 6d to 30s 3d, and about 13 of Eastern barley at 21s 6d to 23s.

The sales noted last week were 124,187 qrs. Wheat at 43s 5d, against 112,724 qrs. in 1858. The London averages were 43s 9d on 5,122 qrs. The imports into the principal ports of Great Britain, in Wheat and Flour, for the week ending 5th October, were equal to 24,452 qrs. The total imports into the kingdom during September last were 180,899 qrs Wheat, and 120,736 cwt Flour.

LIVE STOCK—Receipts, 32 cars Cattle, 4 cars Hogs; shipments, 11 cars Cattle, 6 cars Hogs. The market for Cattle was quite brisk to day, and the demand for prime Cattle was good at about yesterday's figures; if anything a shade better. The transactions of the day at Sherman's Yards foot up 540 head at from $2.30@3.10. The arrivals continue to show an improvement in the grade of stock, over those received for the past few weeks, resulting somewhat, from the fact that poor Cattle have been almost unsaleable at any price. Most of the Cattle brought to-day were purchased by the packers. There was but little done in Hogs, but the yards were cleaned out. There is not much inquiry for Hogs, and prices ranged from 3½ for stock Hogs to 4½ for fat. There were no transactions in Sheep to-day and there is no inquiry for any but prime fat ones for the city trade.

The sales at Sherman's to-day were:

New York Stock and Money Markets.

BY TELEGRAPH.] NEW YORK, Nov. 5.

The heaviness in the Stock Market noticed upon the receipt of the America's news yesterday, continues this A. M., and prices of R. R. shares are decidedly lower and irregular. The State Stocks and U. S. bonds and a few dividend paying shares do not participate in the downward tendency.

Illinois Central shares again responded to London quotations by the America. The lands of the road gave the Company $28,000 last month, and the traffic thus far this month is reaching $4,000 per day; 230 cars were loaded on the 2d, and $27,000 discharged. Thus far one-half the new corn which has reached Chicago has been brought from the south by the Illinois Central; and 5,000 bales of cotton have gone East by way of Cairo, Chicago and Toledo. THE EQUITABLE LIFE Assurance Society! OF THE UNITED STATES. PURELY MUTUAL. OFFICE NO. 98 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Is now fully organized, having complied with the laws of this State, and lodged the required Securities with the Comptroller. This society is prepared to receive applications for Life Assurance, and will underwrite policies upon the most favorable terms.

This is the only Stock Company in America that divides its ENTIRE PROFITS, PRO RATA, among its Policy Holders, except the legal interest of 7 per cent., which is paid on its Capital Stock of $100,000, and by its investment in United States Stock returns nearly that amount to the Society, thereby giving the assured all the advantages of the PURELY MUTUAL SYSTEM with the PLEDGE OF A PERPETUAL CAPITAL STOCK, and the added security that its Board of Directors have a PERMANENT MONEYED INTEREST in conducting its affairs with Prudence and Strict Economy.

Its rates are based upon the most approved English Tables of Mortality, verified by American experience to the present time. By the Charter, dividends to the Assured are to be declared every Five Years, and may be applied to the reduction of premium, or will be credited upon the policy, thereby increasing the amount insured.

Parties desiring to insure will be furnished with the Society's publications, &c., (gratis) upon application, or if desired, will be waited upon at whatever place they may designate, by any one of its officers.

INSURANCE. W. B. LOUNSBURY, Agent. I have been appointed GENERAL AGENT of the METROPOLITAN FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF NEW YORK CITY. For all the Western, North-western and South-western States, consequently have resigned my agency of several companies heretofore represented for the purpose of taking risks in this city, in order to confine my business to a less number of companies, and thus enabling me to attend to the Western business of the "Metropolitan." I have, therefore, retained four companies only, such as I can confidently say are among the best in the world. They are as follows, to wit:

METROPOLITAN FIRE INSURANCE CO., N. Y. City Assets......$400,000.

PARK FIRE INSURANCE CO., New York City, Assets......$300,000.

The advantages the Loan Fund Association offers over any other monied institution are:

1st. As a place of investment. There is not a Savings Institution in our city based upon a safer principle, or that pays so large a percentage, as these Loan Fund Associations are paying. Their popularity and financial standing in the Eastern States, fully attest this assertion.

2d. It converts rent into capital by enabling those who will avail themselves of it, to procure a homestead through a loan from the Association, the same being repaid by a small stated sum monthly, with interest, until the principal is returned, thus making the Association their landlord and knowing that each monthly payment goes toward making the property their own.

Books for subscription to the stock are now open, and any information can be obtained by application to the Secretary, at the above office. se30-a566-6m

TRUSTEE'S SALE.—Whereas, George A. Gibbs and Anna M. Gibbs, his wife, on the nineteenth day of May A. D. 1854, executed and delivered to the undersigned, Mark Skinner, their certain Deed of Trust of that date for the premises hereinafter described to secure the payment of ten thousand dollars, according to the tenor and effect of two certain bills of exchange mentioned and described in said deed of trust, and which said deed of trust was filed for record in the Recorder's Office in and for the County of Cook, in the State of Illinois, on the 31st day of May, A. D. 1854, and was recorded in book No. 81 of deeds, on page 129, &c., as is stated in the certificate of the Recorder duly endorsed on the back of said deed of trust; and, whereas, default has been made by the said George A. Gibbs to protect and pay the said bills of exchange to Wadsworth & Sheldon, the payees named in said bills of exchange, or to the legal holders of said bills of exchange, according to the tenor of said deed of trust and of said bills of exchange, and the said bills are wholly due and unpaid; and, whereas, said deed of trust was afterwards renewed and confirmed by a certain deed of conveyance made and executed by the said George A. Gibbs, together with Hiram A. Tucker and Ellen M. Tucker, his wife, to the said Mark Skinner, which said deed bears date the twenty-fifth day of May, A. D. 1856, and was duly filed for record in the Recorder's Office in and for the County of Cook aforesaid, on the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1859, and recorded in book of deeds No. 174, on page 318, as appears by the Recorder's certificate endorsed on the back of said deed. And, whereas, the legal holders of said bills of exchange have made application to me to sell the premises mentioned in said deed of trust, and said deed of conveyance reviving and renewing the same as aforesaid.

Now, therefore, I, the said Mark Skinner, do hereby give notice that in pursuance of power vested in me by the aforesaid deeds, I will, on the twelfth day of November, A. D. 1859, sell at public auction at the North door of the Court House in the city of Chicago, in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, to the highest bidder for cash, the following described property and premises, situate, lying and being in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, and known and distinguished as being the west thirty (30) acres of the North half of the East half of the Northeast quarter of Section fifteen (15) in town thirty-nine (39) North, in range thirteen (13) east of the third principal meridian, together with all the hereditaments, tenements and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and all benefit and equity of redemption of the grantors named in said deeds of conveyance as aforesaid. oc31xtd MARK SKINNER, Trustee.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.—The following named persons have filed in the County Court of Cook County, claims and set the estates of deceased persons, as follows, to wit:—Bertha Lindner and John Lindner vs. James Carney, John Olson vs. Nels Olson, Lazarus Friedman vs. James O'Donoghue, Samuel M. Perry vs. Samuel C. Skinner, John T. Edwards and Edward M. Pryor vs. Chas. D. King, which claims are yet unadjusted. Now, unless the said claims be proved, with proper vouchers, or some good cause for continuance of the same be shown to the Court, the claims will be dismissed as provided by the act of the Legislature of Illinois, approved February 21, 1859. All parties interested in the adjustment of claims against the estates of deceased persons, are requested to take notice of the above, and be governed accordingly. By order of the Court. C. B. FARWELL, Clerk. Chicago, Ill., Oct. 25, 1859. oc31 a789 1w
